Introduced by Sens. PARKER, KRUEGER, ONORATO -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Health

AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to increasing penalties for unlawful dissection, procurement, and sale of human tissue, organs or body parts

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Section 4210-a of the public health law, as amended by
2 chapter 346 of the laws of 2006, is amended to read as follows:
3 S 4210-a. Unlawful dissection of the body of a human being. A person
4 who makes, or causes or procures to be made, any dissection of the body
5 of a human being, except by authority of law, or in pursuance of [a]
6 WRITTEN permission given by the deceased, is guilty of a class E felony.
7 S 2. Section 4216 of the public health law, as amended by chapter 346
8 of the laws of 2006, is amended to read as follows:
9 S 4216. Body stealing. A person who removes the dead body of a human
10 being, or any TISSUE, ORGAN OR part thereof from a grave, vault, or 11 other place, where the same has been buried, or from a place where the 12 same has been deposited while awaiting burial, without authority of law,
13 with intent to sell the same, or for the purpose of dissection, or for 14 the purpose of procuring a reward for the return of the same, or from 15 malice or wantonness, is guilty of a class D felony.
16 S 3. Section 4217 of the public health law, as added by chapter 1031
17 of the laws of 1965, is amended to read as follows:
18 S 4217. Receiving stolen body of a human being. A person who
19 purchases, or receives except for the purpose of burial, the dead body
20 of a human being, or any part thereof, knowing that the same has been
21 removed contrary to the last section, is guilty of a [misdemeanor] CLASS
