IN ASSEMBLY

May 13, 2022

Introduced by COMMITTEE ON RULES -- (at request of M. of A. K. Brown) -- read once and referred to the Committee on Transportation

AN ACT to amend the navigation law, in relation to requiring boating safety courses to be completed once every three years

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 78 of the navigation law is amended by adding a new subdivision 4 to read as follows:

4. Boating safety certificates awarded under this part shall expire three years after the holder thereof has successfully completed a course of instruction in boating safety as provided in this section.

§ 2. Section 79 of the navigation law is amended by adding a new subdivision 3 to read as follows:

3. A person previously awarded a boating safety certificate shall be considered to have completed a course of instruction under this part upon passing an examination on boating safety developed by the commissioner.

§ 3. This act shall take effect one year after it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
