IN SENATE

January 19, 2023

Introduced by Sens. LIU, MAY, ORTT -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to the participation of home-schooled pupils in certain school activities

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 806-a of the education law is amended by adding a new subdivision 3 to read as follows:

3. Whenever such course of instruction is offered within a district, a child residing within that district but not attending the school at which such course is offered, shall be allowed to participate in such course, provided such child otherwise meets the requirements of such course and pays fees related to such course, if any.

§ 2. The education law is amended by adding a new section 3202-a to read as follows:

§ 3202-a. Participation of home-schooled students in athletic activities. Whenever a district shall offer an interscholastic athletic activity, a child residing within such district but not attending such school, shall be allowed an opportunity to participate in such athletic activity; provided, that such child is not a pupil at another school within such district.

§ 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
