Introduced by M. of A. MAHER -- read once and referred to the Committee on Transportation

AN ACT to amend the highway law, in relation to dedicating a portion of the state highway system to Assistant Fire Chief Jason T. McGlone

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The highway law is amended by adding a new section 345-e to read as follows:

§ 345-e. Portion of the state highway system to be dedicated to Assistant Fire Chief Jason T. McGlone. All that portion of the state highway system in the town of Hancock in the county of Delaware, constituting state route thirty from the intersection with New York state route seventeen to the town of Colchester town line, shall be dedicated to Assistant Fire Chief Jason T. McGlone.

§ 2. The commissioner of transportation shall provide for the installation and maintenance of adequate signing of the state highway system as dedicated pursuant to section one of this act, provided that such signing shall state "Highway Dedicated to Assistant Fire Chief Jason T McGlone". However, to avoid confusion and to limit any possible disruption of commerce, the dedication called for pursuant to section one of this act shall be one of ceremonial nature and the official name of such highway shall not be changed as a result of this act.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
