Introduced by M. of A. HAWLEY -- read once and referred to the Committee on Local Governments

AN ACT in relation to authorizing the town of Pavilion in Genesee county and the town of Covington in Wyoming county to elect a single town justice to preside in the town courts of such towns

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Pursuant to section 106-b of the uniform justice court act, the town of Pavilion in Genesee county and the town of Covington in Wyoming county have conducted and completed a study, each town having adopted a joint resolution providing for the study, conducted a public hearing upon the findings of the study, and adopted a joint resolution adopting such plan providing for the abolition of existing town justice positions in the towns of Pavilion and Covington and providing for the election of a single town justice to preside in the town courts of such towns. The town justice elected pursuant to this plan shall preside in the towns of Pavilion and Covington following the next general election in such towns and shall preside for the year term as elected.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
