Introduced by Sen. MAYER -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Civil Service and Pensions

AN ACT to waive approval and income limitations on certain retired police officers in the town of Pound Ridge, county of Westchester; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 211, 212, and 401 of the retirement and social security law and any other law, regulation, or rule to the contrary, a retired police officer who has retired from the New York state and local police and fire retirement system or the New York city police pension plan may be employed and earn compensation in a part-time position as a police officer in the town of Pound Ridge, county of Westchester, without any effect on such officer's status as retired, without suspension or diminution of such officer's retirement allowance, and without prior approval under section 211 of the retirement and social security law. Such part-time police officer shall be permitted to work up to one thousand forty hours in any calendar year. Earnings received as a result of such part-time employment as a police officer in the town of Pound Ridge, county of Westchester, shall not be included in a retired police officer's earnings when applying the earnings limitations imposed by subdivisions 1 and 2 of section 212 of the retirement and social security law.

§ 2. This act shall take effect January 1, 2027 and shall expire and be deemed repealed January 1, 2030.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
