AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to removing college textbooks from the tax on certain internet providers that use websites for the sale of tangible personal property

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEM-BLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Subparagraph (vi) of paragraph 8 of subdivision (b) of 2 section 1101 of the tax law, as added by section 1 of part 00-1 of chap-
3 ter 57 of the laws of 2008, is amended to read as follows:
4 (vi) For purposes of subclause (I) of clause (C) of subparagraph (i)
5 of this paragraph, a person making sales of tangible personal property 6 or services taxable under this article ("seller") shall be presumed to 7 be soliciting business through an independent contractor or other repre-
8 sentative if the seller enters into an agreement with a resident of this 9 state under which the resident, for a commission or other consideration, 10 directly or indirectly refers potential customers, whether by a link on 11 an internet website or otherwise, to the seller, if the cumulative gross 12 receipts from sales by the seller to customers in the state who are 13 referred to the seller by all residents with this type of an agreement 14 with the seller is in excess of ten thousand dollars during the preced-15 ing four quarterly periods ending on the last day of February, May, 16 August, and November. This presumption may be rebutted by proof that the 17 resident with whom the seller has an agreement did not engage in any 18 solicitation in the state on behalf of the seller that would satisfy the 19 nexus requirement of the United States constitution during the four 20 quarterly periods in question. Nothing in this subparagraph shall be 21 construed to narrow the scope of the terms independent contractor or 22 other representative for purposes of subclause (I) of clause (C) of 23 subparagraph (i) of this paragraph. FOR THE PURPOSES OF THIS SUBPARA-

EXPLANATION--Matter in ITALICS (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
