AN ACT to amend the civil service law, in relation to the promotion and administration of scheduled exams

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 2 of section 50 of the civil service law, as amended by chapter 166 of the laws of 1978, is amended to read as follows:

2. Announcement of examination. The state civil service department and municipal commissions shall issue an announcement of each competitive examination, setting forth the minimum qualifications required, the subjects of the examination, and such other information as they may deem necessary, and shall advertise and promote such examination in such manner as the nature of the examination may require. Such announcement and advertisement shall each inform prospective applicants of the options for religious observance provided in subdivision eight of this section.

§ 2. Section 50 of the civil service law is amended by adding a new subdivision 5-a to read as follows:

5-a. Location of examinations. (a) The state civil service department shall offer examinations at any location or locations that it deems suitable.

(b) The state civil service department shall make efforts to utilize state university of New York educational opportunity centers when selecting testing sites.

§ 3. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
