AN ACT to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to requiring that school anti-harassment policies are enforced in compliance with the regulations of the chancellor of the New York city department of education

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraph 3 of subdivision c of section 10-137 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as added by local law number 42 of the city of New York for the year 2004, is amended to read as follows:

3. The chancellor of the city public school system shall appoint the principal of each school as the person responsible for ensuring the dissemination of the anti-harassment policies and guidelines to all staff of each school, all school safety officers, all members of the school safety committee, and to all students and their parents or guardians, and for providing training to pedagogical staff and school safety officers. Such principal shall also ensure that the name and contact information of a school employee who can provide copies of such policies and guidelines is made available to all students, parents, guardians, staff and to the school safety committee. Such principal shall oversee enforcement of the anti-harassment policies and guidelines so as to assure compliance with the regulations promulgated by the chancellor of the New York city department of education, including regulation A-832. Such principal may designate a subordinate to assume the responsibilities required by this paragraph.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
