Introduced by Sen. BOYLE -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Investigations and Government Operations

AN ACT to establish a task force to study how to incentivize individuals in the state of New York to become pilots

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. a. A task force is hereby established to study how to incentivize individuals in the state of New York to become pilots.

b. The task force shall study:

(i) measures the state of New York has taken or may take to incentivize individuals to become pilots;

(ii) measures airlines within the country have taken to incentivize individuals to become pilots;

(iii) measures other states have taken to incentivize individuals to become pilots;

(iv) the effect of high-stress scheduling on pilots;

(v) why pilots are retiring at high rates despite financial incentives to remain in the industry;

(vi) the cost of education and training for an individual to become employed as a pilot; and

(vii) the effect of a strong aviation industry on state tourism.

c. No later than one year after the effective date of this act, the task force shall report its findings to the governor and the legislature, as described under subdivision b of this section.

§ 2. a. The task force shall be comprised of:

(i) two members appointed by the governor;

(ii) two members appointed by the temporary president of the senate;

(iii) two members appointed by the speaker of the assembly; and

(iv) one member appointed by the commissioner of transportation.

b. One of the appointments by the governor shall serve as chairperson of the task force.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
