IN ASSEMBLY

February 1, 2019

Introduced by M. of A. DenDEKKER -- read once and referred to the Committee on Transportation

AN ACT to amend the vehicle and traffic law, in relation to requiring the removal of accumulated snow and ice from motor vehicles

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The vehicle and traffic law is amended by adding a new section 1229-e to read as follows:

§ 1229-e. Removal of snow and ice. (1) The operator of any motor vehicle shall remove any accumulated ice or snow from such motor vehicle, including the hood, trunk and roof of such motor vehicle, so that any ice or snow accumulated on such vehicle does not pose a threat to persons or property while the vehicle is being operated on any street or highway of this state where the speed limit exceeds forty miles per hour. Any operator who fails to remove accumulated ice or snow that poses such a threat shall be fined seventy-five dollars.

(2) This section shall not apply to: (a) any operator of a motor vehicle during a period of snow, sleet or freezing rain if such period began and continued during the period of the motor vehicle's operation; (b) any operator of a motor vehicle during the time such vehicle is parked; (c) authorized emergency vehicles, as such term is defined in section one hundred one of this chapter; or (d) to persons with a disability.

(3) For the purposes of this section:

(a) "Motor vehicle" shall have the same meaning as in section one hundred twenty-five of this chapter.

(b) "Accumulated ice or snow" shall mean at least two inches of snow or one-half inch of ice.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
