AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to promoting an obscene sexual performance by a child in the first degree

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The penal law is amended by adding a new section 263.09 to read as follows:

§ 263.09 Promoting an obscene sexual performance by a child in the first degree.

A person is guilty of promoting an obscene sexual performance by a child in the first degree when, knowing the character and content thereof, he or she produces or directs ten or more obscene performances, each of which includes sexual conduct by a child less than seventeen years of age. Notwithstanding subdivision four of section 263.00 of this article, for purposes of this section, a "performance" shall mean a play, motion picture or dance, or a photographic session at which multiple photographs are taken.

Promoting an obscene sexual performance by a child in the first degree is a class C felony.

§ 2. Section 263.10 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 1 of the laws of 2000, is amended to read as follows:

§ 263.10 Promoting an obscene sexual performance by a child in the second degree.

A person is guilty of promoting an obscene sexual performance by a child in the second degree when, knowing the character and content thereof, he produces, directs or promotes any obscene performance which includes sexual conduct by a child less than seventeen years of age.

Promoting an obscene sexual performance by a child in the second degree is a class D felony.

§ 3. This act shall take effect on the first of November next succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
