Introduced by M. of A. SILLITTI -- read once and referred to the Committee on Election Law

AN ACT to amend the election law, in relation to authorizing county boards of elections to establish county-wide polling places

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The election law is amended by adding a new section 8-110 to read as follows:

§ 8-110. County-wide polling places. 1. A county board of elections may establish one or more polling places in the county where any person entitled to vote in such county by personal appearance may so vote on the day of a primary election or general election.

2. Any person entitled to vote in a county by personal appearance may do so at any polling place established in such county pursuant to subdivision one of this section.

3. No county-wide polling place established under subdivision one of this section shall replace or otherwise decrease the number of polling places otherwise required under law. Any such county-wide polling place shall be subject to all other voting and polling place requirements under this article not otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this section.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
