THE SECRETARY: By Senator Thompson, Legislative Resolution Number 2596, honoring Police Officer Jose Vega for his consummate bravery and compassion while saving the life of a young boy.

"WHEREAS, This Legislative Body has the deepest pride and admiration for the police officers of New York State who take prompt and appropriate action in emergency situations in order to preserve the life of another; and

"WHEREAS, Attendant to such concern, and in full accord with its long-standing traditions, it is the sense of this Legislative Body to honor Police Officer

Jose Vega for his consummate bravery and compassion while saving the life of a young boy; and

"WHEREAS, A 23-year veteran of the Buffalo Police Department, Police Officer Jose Vega was responding to a call at the Wilson Farms Store on Auburn Avenue when a car pulled up and a man told him that his 23-month-old son was in the back and not breathing; and

"WHEREAS, One of the most respected members of the Buffalo Police Department, Police Officer Jose Vega instantly dove in, pulled out the baby and began administering CPR through mouth-to-mouth resuscitation; and

"WHEREAS, Police Officer Jose Vega was quickly joined by Police Officers Darrick Ferrell and Valerie Stover-Kelly, and the trio worked as one unified body to deliver lifesaving measures to the baby; and

"WHEREAS, Within minutes, Engine 37 firefighters, led by Lieutenant Michael Lynch and aided by Firefighters Gary Schultz, David Denz, and Robert Carnevale, arrived and took over the rescue efforts; and

"WHEREAS, This Legislative Body cannot express sufficient gratitude to those devoted individuals who recognize that the preservation of life and property is a sacred responsibility and who make that responsibility their own by serving as police officers; and

"WHEREAS, This Legislative Body is pleased to have this opportunity to express its highest admiration for Police Officer Jose Vega; now, therefore, be it

"RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to honor Police Officer Jose Vega for his consummate bravery and compassion while saving the life of a young boy; and be it further

"RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to Buffalo Police Officer Jose Vega, Police Officer Darrick Ferrell, and Police Officer Valerie Stover-Kelly."

ACTING PRESIDENT BRESLIN: Senator Thompson.

SENATOR THOMPSON: Thank you.

It is with a heavy heart that I stand today in honor of Officer Vega, who is not only a long-time Buffalo police officer but an officer who has done so much civic work in the city of Buffalo. And his act of courage is worthy of praise by this body.

And it's unfortunate, the situation why we're here recognizing Officer Vega, but I believe that he is someone who should be commended by this Legislature. He does a good job not only in the Buffalo Police Department, but also he's involved in a number of community service activities.

Too often we do not give a lot of our police officers, particularly in Buffalo, the credit that they deserve. But Officer Vega is one of those unsung heroes. This is not the only act of heroism that he has been involved with in his more than 15 years in the Buffalo Police Department.

So I stand today in saluting Officer Vega for a job well done, and I just want all the folks back home to recognize this is a very distinguished member of the Buffalo Police Department.

Thank you.

"RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to the aforementioned honorees."

ACTING PRESIDENT BRESLIN: Senator Thompson, on the resolution.

SENATOR THOMPSON: Yes, thank you, Mr. President.

I want to thank you for this opportunity to speak just a few moments about a young man, a young man, David Evans, Jr., a young man who served as an intern in my office for about six months. And he had a dream when he left Kensington High School, and that was to go into the armed services, and he fulfilled that dream. Unfortunately, in serving our country in Operation Iraqi Freedom and also Afghanistan as well, this young man died at 18 years of age.

He was a young man who, when he served in our office, always had a beautiful smile on his face. He would never question why he had to answer the phones, stuff the envelopes, do all those things that our young people are asked to do, whether they're in high school or they're in college or they're in graduate school, they work at the municipal level or the state or federal level as an intern.

And when David died, I was so devastated, the same way many of us have been devastated by so many other individuals who have died in this pursuit of freedom against terrorism and destruction that took place in the United States of America on September 11th.

So when David decided to go to service, and unfortunately when he passed away in combat, his mother said: "Councilmember Thompson, what can we do to keep his legacy alive?" And I said that we will start a scholarship in his name.

And I can tell you, eight years ago or so we started this scholarship in David's name, and this year we were able to recognize 10 very deserving high school students. The purpose of the scholarship is the David Evans Scholarship on courage. Each of the individuals are required to do a personal essay, an essay that talks about their various life experiences.

And I can tell you, this year when I was reading those essays it required at least two days, because some of the testimonials of some of these young inner-city students from Niagara Falls and Buffalo, even kids from Grand Island and Tonawanda have some very important stories to tell.

And so I say on behalf of this body that it is with great privilege and honor that I recognize not only the recipients of the David Evans Scholarship, but again we salute him for his act of courage. Because we know that the ultimate sacrifice in the United States of America is the sacrifice when one is willing to put their life on the line so that we can enjoy the freedoms that we enjoy in the United States of America.

God bless those recipients, and also God bless the family of David Evans, Jr.

As I was saying before, this is a bill that, if it passes this house, it will increase taxes to the people of the City of New York.

The City of New York has been burdened with taxes. Every time that we need money, we put taxes on the City of New York. And these are the black, Hispanic and poor people, senior citizens who are being burdened with these taxes.

Yesterday, yesterday the MTA of the City of New York increased its fare, the fare for subways and buses. So that's another tax.

So today I cannot, I cannot support this bill to impose more taxes to the City of New York.

And I hope, I hope that today, after we pass all these bills that we're passing, our beloved Governor is happy. And we already do all this and everybody is happy, we got 32 votes, and the Governor is happy. The Governor achieved today a big milestone by getting 32 votes and we're doing all this business. So praise the Lord, today we did it.

Thank you.

ACTING PRESIDENT STEWART-COUSINS: Thank you, Senator.

SENATOR DIAZ: I'm voting no.

ACTING PRESIDENT STEWART-COUSINS: Senator Monserrate.

SENATOR MONSERRATE: Thank you, Madam Chair.

And thank you for the opportunity to also echo the sentiment of my colleague Senator Ruben Diaz with respect to the sales tax increase that has been proposed. I understand that the Council of the City of New York, a body of which I used to be a member of, voted in favor, though I believe about 10 members voted against.

I believe that the City of New York and the administration in particular should engage in a much better and more progressive tax scheme. They continually promote regressive taxation that hurts working-class families and communities of color to our city.

I will join my colleague in voting no to 703. Thank you very much.

ACTING PRESIDENT STEWART-COUSINS: Thank you.

I understand that there's been some confusion with this. We're not on the roll call as yet, so people are on the bill, people are speaking on the bill.
