AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to labeling of ingredients of diapers

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 399-aaaaaa to read as follows:

§ 399-aaaaaa. Diaper labeling. 1. For purposes of this section:

(a) "ingredient" shall mean an intentionally added substance present in a diaper;

(b) "diaper" shall mean a type of underwear that absorbs waste products to prevent soiling of outer clothing or the external environment without the use of a toilet.

2. No later than twelve months after the effective date of this section, each package or box containing diapers sold in this state shall contain a plain and conspicuous printed list of all ingredients which shall be listed in order of predominance. Such list shall either be printed on the package or affixed thereto.

3. The requirements of this section shall apply in addition to any other labeling requirements established pursuant to any other provision of law.

4. Whenever a violation of this section has occurred, a civil penalty of one percent of the manufacturer's total annual in-state sales not to exceed one thousand dollars per package or box shall be imposed on the manufacturer.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
