AN ACT to amend the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four, in relation to limited-profit housing companies and other buildings or structures which received project-based rental assistance

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Legislative findings and declaration of emergency. The 2 legislature hereby finds and declares that the serious public emergency 3 which led to the enactment of the existing laws regulating residential 4 rents and evictions continues to exist; that such laws would better
5 serve the public interest if certain changes were made thereto, includ-6 ing extending to certain cities, towns and villages the authority to 7 provide for the regulation of rents and evictions with regard to housing 8 accommodations that cease or have ceased to be regulated pursuant to 9 article 2 of the private housing finance law, known as the Mitchell-Lama 10 law, or pursuant to project-based section eight contracts entered into 11 with the federal government.
12 The legislature further recognizes that severe disruption of the 13 rental housing market has occurred and threatens to be exacerbated as a

1 result of the abrupt termination of rent and eviction regulation when 2 buildings exit the Mitchell-Lama program or when buildings cease to be 3 subject to project-based section eight contracts. The situation had 4 permitted speculative and profiteering practices and has brought about 5 the loss of vital and irreplaceable affordable housing for working 6 persons and families.

7 The legislature therefore declares that in order to prevent uncertain-
8 ty, potential hardship and dislocation of tenants living in housing 9 accommodations subject to government regulations as to rentals and 10 continued occupancy as well as those not subject to such regulations, 11 the provisions of this act are necessary to protect the public health, 12 safety and general welfare. The necessity in the public interest for the 13 provisions hereinafter enacted is hereby declared as a matter of legis-14 lative determination.

15 S 2. Section 5 of section 4 of chapter 576 of the laws of 1974 consti-16 tuting the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four is 17 amended by adding a new subdivision c to read as follows:

48 tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four or of subdivision a of 49 section 26-513 of the administrative code of the city of New York shall 50 not apply to any housing accommodation which became subject to the emer-51 gency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four pursuant to the 52 provisions of subdivision c of section 5 of section 4 of chapter 576 of 53 the laws of 1974 or to any such housing accommodation otherwise subject 54 to the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four by 55 reason of its location in a building completed or substantially reno-

1 vated as family units prior to January first, nineteen hundred seventy-2 four.
3 S 4. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to housing 4 accommodations located in buildings or structures owned by housing
5 companies that dissolved on, before or after such date and to housing 6 accommodations in buildings or structures that were covered projects and 7 had contracts for rental assistance that expired or were terminated on, 8 before or after such date; provided that the amendments to section 5 of 9 the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four made by 10 section two of this act shall expire on the same date as such act 11 expires and shall not affect the expiration of such act as provided in 12 section 17 of chapter 576 of the laws of 1974.
