Introduced by Sen. HOYLMAN-SIGAL -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend chapter 455 of the laws of 1997, amending the New York city civil court act and the civil practice law and rules relating to authorizing New York city marshals to exercise the same functions, powers and duties as sheriffs with respect to the execution of money judgments of the supreme and family courts of the city of New York and defining the term "the sheriff" as used therein, in relation to the effectiveness thereof; and to amend the real property actions and proceedings law, in relation to notice of eviction by New York city marshals

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 3 of chapter 455 of the laws of 1997, amending the New York city civil court act and the civil practice law and rules relating to authorizing New York city marshals to exercise the same functions, powers and duties as sheriffs with respect to the execution of money judgments of the supreme and family courts of the city of New York and defining the term "the sheriff" as used therein, as amended by chapter 151 of the laws of 2023, is amended to read as follows:

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately and shall remain in full force and effect only until June 30, [~~2024~~] 2026 when upon such date this act shall be deemed repealed.

§ 2. The real property actions and proceedings law is amended by adding a new section 662 to read as follows:

§ 662. New York city marshals. In the event the authority of a marshal is extended throughout the city of New York with respect to the taking and restitution of property, a marshal shall provide notice of such eviction by physical posting of the notice and by an electronic filing. For purposes of this section, "electronic filing" shall mean an electronic filing as described in section twenty-one hundred three-a of the New York city civil court act.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
