AN ACT to amend the highway law, in relation to dedicating a portion of the state highway system to "Trooper Jill E. Mattice"

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The highway law is amended by adding a new section 344-r to read as follows:

§ 344-r. Portion of the state highway system to be dedicated to "Trooper Jill E. Mattice". All that portion of the state highway system constituting state route 23 in the town of Morris, county of Otsego, from the intersection with county route 49 to the intersection with Potato Farm Road, known as Patrick Hill Road, shall be dedicated to "Trooper Jill E. Mattice".

§ 2. The commissioner of transportation shall provide for the installation and maintenance of adequate signing of the state highway system pursuant to section one of this act. However, to avoid confusion and to limit any possible disruption of commerce, the dedication called for pursuant to section one of this act shall be one of ceremonial nature and the official name of such highway shall not be changed as a result of this act.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
