1 prescribe, may make such directions as the best interests of the child 2 may require, for custody rights for such grandparent or grandparents OR 3 RELATIVE in respect to such child. An extended disruption of custody, as 4 such term is defined in this section, shall constitute an extraordinary 5 circumstance.

(b) For the purposes of this section "extended disruption of custody" 6 7 shall include, but not be limited to, a prolonged separation of the respondent parent and the child for at least twenty-four continuous 8 months, during which TIME the parent voluntarily relinquished care and 9 10 control of the child and the child resided in the household of the petitioner grandparent or grandparents OR RELATIVE, provided, however, that 11 the court may find that extraordinary circumstances exist should the 12 prolonged separation have lasted for less than twenty-four months. 13

14 (c) Nothing in this section shall limit the ability of parties to 15 enter into consensual custody agreements absent the existence of 16 extraordinary circumstances.

17 S 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
