AN ACT in relation to creating a state civil air patrol board

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1     Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited and 2 referred to as the "New York state civil air patrol act".
3     S 2. Declaration of purposes and findings. The legislature finds and 4 declares that by act of the eightieth congress (Public Law 557) the 5 civil air patrol was designated as the civilian auxiliary of the United 6 States air force; that the secretary of said air force was authorized to 7 direct the civil air patrol to perform certain non-combatant flying
8 missions in the interest of national defense and the public welfare;
9 that civil air patrol volunteers fly approximately seventy-eight percent 10 of the total hours and continental limits of the United States (and all 11 search and rescue missions in the state of New York); that in addition 12 to its search and rescue operations, ground observer corps missions, and 13 radar flight tests, the civil air patrol engages in missions involving 14 the patrol of forests, pipelines, flooded areas and other disaster
15 areas, and in the transportation of critical parts and supplies; that 16 the civil air patrol is engaged in the pre-flight training of fourteen
17 to eighteen year old boys and girls; that the New York wing of civil air 18 patrol has at its disposal hundreds of trained and licensed aeroplane 19 pilots and observers as well as hundreds of privately-owned and govern-
20 ment "on loan" aircraft, as well as communication facilities, power
21 plants and mobile equipment, together with a trained staff of communi-
22 cation personnel; that the services and equipment of the New York wing 23 of civil air patrol have been and are available for use by the state of 24 New York in missions assisting civil defense and any other mission in 25 the interest of the public safety, health and general welfare and should 26 be utilized to their maximum extent; that the utilization of the trained

1 manpower and equipment of civil air patrol will provide the people of 2 the state of New York, at a nominal cost, with forest fire protection, 3 disaster relief service, guaranteed communications, air to ground and 4 ground to air, and aircraft emergency assistance for all state agen-
5 cies; that the maximum use by the state of New York of the facilities of 6 civil air patrol will encourage its cadet training program; that action
7 by the legislature to utilize the civil air patrol and its vast manpower
8 and equipment is declared to be necessary.

9 S 3. State civil air patrol board established. There is hereby created 10 and established in the state emergency management office in the execu-11 tive department a state agency to be known as the New York state civil 12 air patrol board.

13 S 4. Organization. 1. The state civil air patrol board shall consist 14 of seven ex-officio members and three members appointed by the governor.
15 The ex-officio members shall be as follows: the director of the state
16 emergency management office, the adjutant general of the state of New 17 York, as an additional duty of his or her office; and five members of 18 the civil air patrol, New York wing, appointed by the director of the 19 state emergency management office and three other members shall be 20 appointed by the governor of New York state. The chair of the board
21 shall be ex-officio the wing commander of the New York wing of civil air
22 patrol. The members of said board appointed by the governor shall serve 23 for terms of two years from and after their appointment or until their 24 successors are duly appointed and qualified. The governor shall fill all 25 vacancies occurring in the appointive members of said board. The gover-
26 nor may, however, at his or her pleasure, remove any member of said
27 board appointed by him or her.

28 2. The members of the board shall serve without compensation.

29 3. The board shall employ such clerical, technical and supervisory 30 assistants as it deems necessary to carry out the provisions of this act 31 and to procure the most efficient use of the equipment and services of 32 the civil air patrol.

33 4. The board shall meet at such times as the chair may direct. If the 34 chair is unable to discharge the duties of his or her office, the vice-35 chair shall discharge such duties. A majority of the members of the 36 board shall constitute a quorum.

37 S 5. Functions, powers and duties of the board. The state civil air 38 patrol board shall be authorized and empowered to:

39 1. Make such reasonable rules and regulations as may be necessary for 40 the proper operation of the said agency.

41 2. Cooperate with agencies established by or pursuant to laws of the 42 United States and of the state of New York to promote the state defense 43 effort and to provide to any state agency communications, rescue work, 44 mercy missions, aerial observation or any other function within the 45 scope and activity of the civil air patrol.

46 3. To have all other powers which may be reasonably implied from the 47 granting of express powers herein, together with such other powers as 48 may be incident to or necessary for the carrying out and the performance 49 of the powers and duties herein given to said board.

50 4. Report to the governor and to the legislature concerning its activ-
51 ities at least once a year and whenever requested.

52 S 6. This act shall take effect immediately.
