(The Secretary called the roll.)

THE SECRETARY: Ayes, 50.

SENATOR KLEIN: Mr. President, I now offer the following amendments.

ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: The amendments are received.

SENATOR KLEIN: Thank you, Mr. President.

ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Thank you, Senator Klein.

Senator DeFrancisco.

SENATOR DeFRANCISCO: Yes, could you please take up the privileged resolution by Senator Phillips, read it in its entirety, and call on Senator Phillips to speak, please.

ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: The Secretary will read.

THE SECRETARY: Legislative resolution by Senator Phillips, commemorating the 9th Annual St. Baldrick's Shave Off and the 4th Annual Ladies Night, in honor of Aiden Binkley.

"WHEREAS, The State of New York takes great pride in helping to increase awareness and understanding of childhood cancers which affect citizens across our great state and throughout the nation; and

"WHEREAS, It is the sense of this Legislative Body to recognize that the quality and character of life in the communities across New York State are reflective of the concerned and dedicated efforts of those organizations, individuals, and events which devote themselves to the welfare of the community and its citizenry; and

"WHEREAS, Attendant to such concern, and in full accord with its long-standing traditions, this Legislative Body is justly proud to commemorate the 9th Annual St. Baldrick's Shave Off and the 4th Annual Ladies Night, in honor of 11-year-old Aiden Binkley, a resident of Floral Park, New York, who passed away on December 30, 2010, after losing his battle with Stage 4 rhabdomyosarcoma; Aiden is one of 1,600 St. Baldrick's honored kids; and

"WHEREAS, This Legislative Body is further proud to recognize the outstanding efforts of Aiden's Army to raise funds for childhood cancer research in honor of Aiden Binkley; and

"WHEREAS, The St. Baldrick's Shave Off was held on Saturday, April 28, 2018, in the parking lot of Trinity Restaurant in Floral Park, New York; one of the largest St. Baldrick's events on Long Island to date, 200 people got their heads shaved and $400,000 was raised; and

"WHEREAS, The St. Baldrick's Ladies Night was held on Thursday, April 26, 2018, at The Inn at New Hyde Park, New Hyde Park, New York, hosted by the Wednesday Mother's Club, a local club which has represented the Floral Park community for 70 years; this favorable event raised $146,000; and

"WHEREAS, More children are lost to cancer in the United States than any other disease, in fact, more than many other childhood diseases combined; before they turn 20, about one in 285 children in the United States will have cancer, and worldwide, a child is diagnosed every two minutes; and

"WHEREAS, Only 4 percent of United States federal funds for cancer research is solely dedicated to childhood cancer research; the St. Baldrick's Foundation was established to fill this gap by providing funding to research programs worldwide through local fundraising events; and

"WHEREAS, St. Baldrick's Foundation is a well-respected national organization which operates via the local level through neighborhood head-shaving events and 'Do What You Want' fundraising initiatives; nearly half a million shaved heads later, they are still the most popular fundraiser; and

"WHEREAS, Kids with cancer often lose their hair during treatment; as a 'shavee,' an individual will shave their head to show their support, and in the process, inspire friends and family to donate to childhood cancer research; and

"WHEREAS, The remarkable donors and volunteers of St. Baldrick's Foundation have enabled the organization to fund over $230 million in childhood cancer research grants which are given to more than 300 institutions throughout the United States; and

"WHEREAS, In 2008, Father John O'Farrell at Our Lady of Victory in Floral Park, New York, asked Bob GaNun to shave his head for kids with cancer; the next year, Bob and his wife, Tricia, moved the head-shaving event to the Trinity Restaurant, where it has become an annual occasion for their village; and

"WHEREAS, At the heart of the event is Aiden Binkley, whom volunteer event organizer Bob GaNun met when Aiden was battling cancer; in response to the tragic loss of Aiden, his young brothers, Jake and Devin, formed Aiden's Army in 2011, to inspire kids to shave their heads for St. Baldrick's Foundation; and

"WHEREAS, Aiden's Army is unique due to 90 percent of those who get their heads shaved are children; in 2014, St. Baldrick's Ladies Night was formed when the Wednesday Mother's Club teamed up with Aiden's Army, and concurrently ran a cupcake sale, raising $1,000 in a few short hours; four years later, the cupcake sales evolved into an annual St. Baldrick's Ladies Night Dinner, which has raised $200,000 cumulatively; and

"WHEREAS, Today, through the steadfast efforts of Aiden's brothers, his parents, Lisa and Michael Binkley, and his aunt, Terry Binkley Paterno, who serves as chairperson of St. Baldrick's Ladies Night, Floral Park's annual hometown shave event continues to honor Aiden's memory and his positive attitude, which has inspired many throughout the last seven years; when Aiden was diagnosed, he truly believed he got cancer to cure cancer; and

"WHEREAS, Since its first shave event, Aiden's Army and St. Baldrick's Ladies Night has raised more than $2,000,000 for cancer research; in 2018, the two Village of Floral Park events were ranked sixth in the world for donations raised for the St. Baldrick's Foundation; currently, through increased childhood cancer research, approximately 90 percent of kids with the most common type of cancer will live; and

"WHEREAS, This Legislative Body is pleased to have the opportunity to express its highest admiration for Aiden's Army and St. Baldrick's Foundation, and to wish both organizations continued success in all their worthy endeavors; now, therefore, be it

"RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to commemorate the 9th Annual St. Baldrick's Shave Off and the 4th Annual Ladies Night, in honor of Aiden Binkley; and be it further

"RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to Aiden's Army."

ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Senator Phillips.

SENATOR PHILLIPS: Yes. So Mr. President, thank you.

And I rise today to welcome the Binkley family and to honor the Binkley family and to honor Aiden, who passed away, as the resolution said, on December 30, 2010, at the young age of 11, after losing his courageous battle with cancer.

In July 2008, Aiden was diagnosed with a rare form of cancer called rhabdomyosarcoma. And as his father said today, sadly, because he's had to say that word so many times in his life, he says it off the tip of his tongue.

During Aiden's illness the Binkley family learned about St. Baldrick's Foundation, which hosts thousands of these local events to raise funds for childhood cancer. As mentioned in the resolution, in 2009 Aiden participated in his first St. Baldrick's Shave Off, which occurred in Floral Park thanks to Bob GaNun, who is also here today. Thank you, Bob.

At the event, people shaved their heads in unity with children who have lost their own hair during their cancer treatment. Numerous friends, families and community members turned out in droves to show their support for Aiden by shaving their heads.

At the event, Aiden took off his baseball cap. And according to his family, as he stood amongst his new friends, he smiled and said "For the first time, I feel normal."

Well, I never met Aiden. I have learned he was a special kid who could light up a room -- friendly, smart, caring, artistic. He was a big fan of the New York Jets -- we won't say anything about that -- especially Quarterback Mark Sanchez, whom he established a personal friendship with.

Shortly after Aiden passed away, his brothers, Jake and Devin, took their grief and their sorrow and formed this Aiden's Army, to inspire kids all over the place to shave their heads for the St. Baldrick's event.

The Floral Park event is now one of 1,000 annual events worldwide. This year 200 people shaved their heads in honor of Aiden and helped raise over $400,000.

As a complement to this, as the resolution said, the Wednesday Mothers Club of Floral Park partnered up and created the St. Baldrick's Ladies Night in 2014. And they started as a cupcake sale, which raised over a thousand dollars in just a few hours. And they thought, Shoot, if we can raise a thousand dollars in a couple of hours, think what else we can do.

So I know I was graciously invited to their event this past year, and I had no idea what I was going to walk into. And I walked into over 700 women who were there to raise money for the St. Baldrick's Foundation, which raised over 200,000 in that one night.

Since the inception of the first Shave Off in 2009, total donations raised in Floral Park has exceeded $2.5 million. Now, for those of you that don't know Floral Park, it's not a large community. And this really is what community is all about: coming together and working for a cause. Their success has made the Floral Park St. Baldrick's events the sixth top fundraiser in the world for the foundation.

One day while they were driving to treatment, Aiden told his mother that he thought the reason he got cancer was so that he could help find a cure.

So to each of you who have loved and cared for Aiden, I have no doubt that he is looking down on you at all times and thanking you for continuing his effort to find a cure for cancer. So God bless you. Thank you for joining us in the Senate today.

Thank you, Mr. President.

ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Thank you, Senator Phillips.

The question is on the resolution. All in favor signify by saying aye.

(Response of "Aye.")

ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Opposed?

(No response.)

ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: The resolution is adopted.

Also, Senator Phillips has opened up the resolution for cosponsorship. If a member chooses to be a cosponsor, please notify the desk.

We'd like to extend a sincere greeting to the Binkley family for being here today. We want to thank the Binkley family for your compassion, for your outstanding commitment to continue to raise awareness -- not only in Aiden's name, but in order to try to achieve more efforts to secure funding in this fight against childhood cancer.

So we sincerely appreciate, despite your adversity, all of our hard work and your efforts. God bless you all.

Let's stand and acknowledge them.

(Standing ovation.)

ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Senator DeFrancisco.

SENATOR DeFRANCISCO: Yes, can we now take up previously adopted Resolution 4323, by Senator Tedisco, title only, and call on Senator Tedisco to speak.

ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: The Secretary will read.

THE SECRETARY: Legislative Resolution Number 4323, by Senator Tedisco, congratulating the Mekeel Christian Academy Varsity Boys Basketball Team and Head Coach Chad Bowman upon the occasion of capturing the New York State Public High School Athletic Association Class B Boys Basketball Championship.

ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Senator Tedisco.

SENATOR TEDISCO: Thank you, Mr. President.

Mr. President, I'm proud to welcome to the Senate chamber and honor today, after, as you've said, we've passed a New York State Senate resolution in their honor, from the 49th Senate District, the Mekeel Christian Academy Varsity Boys Basketball Team from the Town of -- and the town I live in and am proud of -- the Town of Glenville.

Now, before I go any further, I'd like to introduce you to my seatmate. This is Senator Akshar. And you're going to understand why I just introduced him to you. The Lions captured the New York State Class B Boys Basketball Championship defeating Seton Hall --

(Laughter.)

SENATOR TEDISCO: -- 42 to 37 on Saturday, March 17, 2018, at the Floyd L. Maines Veterans Memorial Arena in Binghamton, New York.

My condolences to you --

(Laughter.)

SENATOR TEDISCO: -- Senator Akshar represents Seton Hall Catholic and that arena, and he was in the gym that day. And he has told me that you played an outstanding game. His team tried their very best to make up for it. He has challenged me to a one-on-one contest. I've agreed to play left-handed and spot him 19 out of 21. And he thinks he has a chance.

(Laughter.)

SENATOR TEDISCO: No, he's a hustler on the team. But he says he'll come back next year, but unfortunately I think you will too.

The victory earned Mekeel Christian Academy the school's first ever state championship, finishing with an overall record of 25 and 4. Outstanding.

During the season, the team enjoyed the number-one ranking in New York State for a period of 13 straight weeks. Players Deonte Holder and Jordan Jackson were News Channel 13 All-Stars in the Capital Region, and senior Carter Stewart was named the tournament's Most Valuable Player and will be taking his talents to Binghamton University in the fall. So you can watch him rub it in a little bit more as he scores a lot of points there, but helps your school over there.

Head Coach Chad Bowman earned career win number 400 in the state championship game. So congratulations to you, Coach. That's an unbelievable figure, 400 wins.

In addition to the members of the team, with us today are the school's other assistant coaches -- Assistant Coaches Mike Show, George Stewart, Khristian Collins, and Adrian Barcelon -- and Athletic Director Dan Decker.

Truly an outstanding team, working together to win an unbelievable championship in a 25-and-4 record.

Mr. President, please welcome to the Senate chamber and congratulate the New York State Class B Boys Basketball Championship Mekeel Christian Academy's Lions and extend them all the cordialities of this august body. And please give the condolences to my seatmate Senator Akshar.

ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Senator Akshar.

SENATOR AKSHAR: Well, let me set the record straight. I'm not going to play Senator Tedisco one on one, I'm going to arm wrestle him. And I promise you that Binghamton will be victorious.

I rise to really congratulate you. I was in fact in the arena that night. And you played with a lot of heart. You're a great team. I really, really enjoyed watching you guys play. Of course I wish Seton would have won, but you guys, you played a little bit better than they did that night, and you certainly deserve this.

So it was an honor to watch you. It was a privilege to watch you that evening. And when you're in Binghamton, make sure you look me up, all right?

Mr. President, thank you.

ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Thank you.

As noted, the resolution was previously adopted on March 27th of this year.

We want to recognize and extend our congratulations to the student athletes, to the coaches who are here today from Mekeel Christian Academy. Congratulations on winning the Class B State Championship. We extend all the cordialities and all of the privileges of the house to you.

So please stand and be recognized and acknowledged.

(Standing ovation.)

ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Senator

DeFrancisco.

SENATOR DeFRANCISCO: Yes, also this resolution is open for cosponsorship.

ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: The resolution is open for cosponsorship. Should you choose to be a cosponsor, notify the desk.

Senator DeFrancisco.

SENATOR DeFRANCISCO: Now can we take up previously adopted Resolution 3597, by Senator Hannon, title only, and call on Senator Hannon to speak.

ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: The Secretary will read.

THE SECRETARY: Legislative Resolution Number 3597, by Senator Hannon, recognizing June 2018 as Meningitis B Awareness Month.

ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Senator Hannon.

SENATOR HANNON: Thank you, Mr. President.

The full version of the resolution goes into the intricate deals of what meningitis is all about, the five subgroups of meningitis, and a little bit about the progress that the State of New York has made in promoting vaccination against meningitis.

The reason I rose today is because we're joined by Patti Wukovits and Nancy Quinn, Patti's mother, and they're here because of the tragic circumstance to Patti's daughter Kimberly.

Kimberly was 17, healthy, ready to graduate from high school, and came home one day complaining of aches and pains and a fever, and within 24 hours had to be admitted to the emergency room, where they suspected bacterial meningitis. And within weeks, she was subject to heart and kidney failure and passed away.

At the time, she had vaccinations against some of the strains of meningitis but now, years after she passed away, we have vaccines against all.

And it's a very surprising disease, strikes without any warning, and can bring just tragedy to any family. So Patti Wukovits has started the Kimberly Coffey Foundation to spread the word about meningitis.

And we in this state have only made some progress. We did pass a law in 2015 in regard to children entering grades 7, 8 and 12 be immunized. We also required warning pamphlets and all that to people going into college. But that's not far enough. To the two or three higher education institutions that have experienced a wave of meningitis in the campus, they immediately require everybody to get inoculated.

After we worked on the warning pamphlet legislation, it was interesting -- to a person, people who had helped us in this house and the other house said to themselves, When my kid goes to college, I'm going to get them inoculated against meningitis.

So we have a ways to go. We can prevent future tragedies that Patti Wukovits and her mother, Nancy Quinn, went through. And I just wanted to thank you.

And Mr. President, they've joined us in the gallery. And if you can just acknowledge their presence, I would appreciate it.

Thank you.

ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Thank you, Senator Hannon.

The resolution was previously adopted on January 30th of this year. It is open for cosponsorship. Should you choose to be a cosponsor, please notify the desk.

And at this time we'd like to recognize and acknowledge Patti and Nancy, who are in the gallery, if you'd please stand. We thank you for your advocacy and for all of your efforts to raise awareness in the fight against meningitis. Thank you very much.

(Standing ovation.)

ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Senator DeFrancisco.

SENATOR DeFRANCISCO: Mr. President, can you now recognize Senator Klein for an introduction of an important group of people here today.

ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Senator Klein.

SENATOR KLEIN: Thank you, Mr. President.

I rise to recognize a very distinguished group made up of parent leaders and students from P.S. 24 and the Riverdale/ Kingsbridge Academy in Riverdale. We have with us the copresidents of the P.S. 24 Parent Association, Laura Moukas and Diane Salanto. We also have Holly Makin and Robert Heisler, representing RKA. Also, Robert was also a former president of 24.

They really personify what's best in parent leadership, working very, very hard on behalf of their children.

The reason why they're here today is there was a silent auction, and they were the lucky bidders to win a day in Albany hosted by myself and Assemblymember Jeff Dinowitz. I understand that the bidding was wild, it got up to a lot of money, but they were very gracious in agreeing to win this bid.

So I want to recognize them today and praise them for their hard work. They're accompanied by their kids. They're enjoying the day.

And I hope you will give them all the courtesies of our house today in the Senate, Mr. President.

ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Thank you, Senator Klein.

On behalf of the State Senate, we'd like to welcome the students, parents, faculty from Riverdale/Kingsbridge Academy and P.S. 24.

Thanks for being with us today, and we hope you have an enjoyable experience here. Please stand up and let us acknowledge you.

(Standing ovation.)

ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Senator DeFrancisco.

SENATOR DeFRANCISCO: Yes, there is, will be -- there is, and I'm calling now, an immediate meeting of the Rules Committee.

ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: There will be an immediate meeting of the Rules Committee in Room 332.

The Senate will stand temporarily at ease.

(Whereupon, the Senate stood at ease at 3:54 p.m.)

(Whereupon, the Senate reconvened at 4:15 p.m.)

ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: The Senate will come to order.

Senator DeFrancisco.

SENATOR DeFRANCISCO: Yes, if we could return to motions and resolutions, please.

ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: We will return to motions and resolutions.

SENATOR DeFRANCISCO: On page 71, I offer the following amendments to Calendar 1401, Senate Print 8270B, by Senator Golden, and ask that said bill retain its place on the Third Reading Calendar.

ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: The amendments are received, and the bill shall retain its place on third reading.

SENATOR DeFRANCISCO: Is there a report of the Rules Committee at the desk?

ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: There is a report of the Rules Committee, and the Secretary will read.

THE SECRETARY: Senator Flanagan, from the Committee on Rules, reports the following bills:

ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Senator Serino to explain her vote.

SENATOR SERINO: Thank you, Mr. President.

And thank you, everyone, for your support on this bill.

This bill was written to honor the legacy of Bailey Bates. Bailey Bates was a 19-year-old autistic man from Poughkeepsie who tragically committed suicide in July of 2017 after con artists preyed on his disability and targeted him for that reason to exploit him financially.

Under current state law, despite evidence that the perpetrators knowingly took advantage of his vulnerability when preying on him, the accused stand only to be charged with minimal counts of endangerment and grand larceny, and they will not be held accountable for the role they played in his death.

Bailey's mother has been a champion for this legislation and to ensure that his legacy is one that helps to empower New Yorkers by actively working to deter these kinds of shameful crimes.

As someone who has lost a loved one to suicide, I know firsthand how traumatic this experience can be. I cannot imagine to cope with that hurt only to find out that heartless criminals who sought to exploit a vulnerable person played a direct role in causing the loss.

We have a duty to ensure that prosecutors have the tools they need to properly hold these despicable perpetrators and those like them accountable. That is the goal of Bailey's Law.

When I first heard Bailey's story, I immediately began researching the issue and discovered another alarming parallel when I discovered that seniors across our country are committing suicide as a direct result of falling victim to a financial scam.

American seniors are bilked out of almost $37 billion each and every year, and too many are either unable or unwilling to come forward about the abuse. A quick Google search will reveal several news reports detailing the fact that too often seniors who have been victimized are turning to suicide. And just like in Bailey's case, there's simply no justice when this happens. These scammers are able to go back out into society and prey on other vulnerable victims.

As the Aging chair, I thought this bill would provide an important opportunity to give law enforcement another important tool to help them prevent another all-too-silent epidemic, elder abuse.

I thank my colleagues for recognizing the importance of this bill today, and I urge my colleagues in the Assembly to make its passage a priority at the end of session so that we can more effectively empower and protect vulnerable New Yorkers.

Thank you.

(The Secretary called the roll.)

ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Senator Montgomery to explain her vote.

SENATOR MONTGOMERY: Thank you, Mr. President.

I want to just thank my colleagues for finally allowing for New York City residents, community board members in particular, to be able to apply for revitalization grants.

As you know, a lot of our city is waterfront, and so many of us will be able to appreciate the fact that the state will be willing to support the efforts of citizens in our city as well as throughout the state, because many of our colleagues have been making sure that their districts are part of this program.

We will be supporting those citizens, those communities are working very hard to revitalize their waterfront areas, especially as it relates to economic development activities, jobs, and other maritime activities in particular.

So on behalf of the citizens of my district and of many of the other districts -- Senator Lanza is on this bill, and a number of others, Senator Savino -- those of us who represent waterfront areas in particular, we -- on behalf of our constituents throughout the state, I want to thank my colleagues for passing this legislation which will now allow community boards to be eligible to participate in the waterfront revitalization grant program.

Thank you, Mr. President. I vote aye.

ACTING PRESIDENT GRIFFO: Senator Mayer to explain her vote.

SENATOR MAYER: Thank you, Mr. President.

I want to commend my colleague Senator Murphy for this very important bill. It's extremely important to the schools in the county of Westchester.

Unfortunately, and incorrectly, Westchester is inserted within the Hudson Valley region for purposes of Foundation Aid and also for Capital Aid for the schools. This bill requires that the State Education Department wisely conduct a study and determine whether Westchester should be placed within that region or more appropriately within the Long Island/

New York City region -- which it really does belong there, and it will make a huge difference to all the schools in our district.

So I commend the sponsor, I was pleased to be a sponsor in the Assembly as well, and I vote aye.
