 - 6. License or permit reissuance.

1 2

- a. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions one, two, three and four of this section, the department may permit reissuance of a license or permit to a member of the immediate family of the prior holder of such license or permit; provided that the individual to whom the license or permit is being reissued is at least sixteen years of age. The department may permit a license or permit holder to designate in writing a member of his or her immediate family to whom the license or permit shall be reissued in the event that the license or permit holder dies prior to surrendering his or her license or permit to the department.
- b. In the event that a designated immediate family member does not wish to engage in the commercial fishing activities authorized by such license or permit, the department may permit such person to identify an alternate person to whom the license or permit shall be reissued. The department is authorized to adopt regulations concerning the reissuance of licenses or permits pursuant to this subdivision.
- [b.] C. The holder of a reissued license or permit shall engage in the activity authorized by the license or permit within three years of the reissuance date. If the license or permit holder fails to engage in such activity during the three years following reissuance, the license or permit shall lapse at the end of the three year period and shall not be renewed unless the department, in its discretion, determines that the license or permit holder's inactivity was justified by significant hardship or unavoidable circumstances.
