AN ACT to establish a study committee on the housing aspect of tourism in the state of New York; and to amend chapter 225 of the laws of 2010, amending the multiple dwelling law and the administrative code of the city of New York relating to clarifying certain provisions relating to occupancy of class A multiple dwellings, in relation to postponing the effective date thereof

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. The legislature finds and declares that tourism, including 2 tourism in the city of New York, is a vital and important part of the 3 economy of the state of New York creating thousand of jobs and producing 4 needed tax revenues both in sales tax receipts, occupancy taxes and 5 income tax revenue. It further finds and declares that an important part 6 of the tourism industry in the city of New York have been rooms and 7 affordable housing accommodations made available in mixed use buildings 8 serving as an alternative to higher end, more expensive hotels which 9 some tourists, such as students, simply cannot afford. Furthermore, the 10 legislature also finds and declares that unless alternative, affordable 11 rooms and affordable housing accommodations remain available, tourism 12 will decline, jobs will be lost and the state during a perilous fiscal 13 condition will lose revenue and jobs. The legislature finds and declares 14 that it is important to avoid any change in the current choice of accom-15 modations available to visitors of our state until there is a thorough 16 economic impact study undertaken regarding the role of affordable tour-
17 ism units and the negative effect that the elimination of these units

3 S 2. There is hereby established a study committee on the housing
4 aspect of the tourism industry in the state of New York. Such committee
5 shall consist of 11 members, who shall serve without compensation. One 6 member shall be the chair of the senate committee on cultural affairs, 7 tourism, parks and recreation or his or her designee. One member shall 8 be the chair of the assembly committee on tourism, parks, arts and 9 sports development or his or her designee. Two members shall be 10 appointed by the temporary president of the senate at least one of whom 11 shall have substantial experience in the tourism industry or be a repre-
12 sentative of a tourism related organization. Two members shall be 13 appointed by the speaker of the assembly at least one of whom shall have 14 substantial experience in the tourism industry or be a representative of 15 a tourism related organization. One member shall be appointed by the 16 minority leader of the senate. One member shall be appointed by the 17 minority leader of the assembly. Two members shall be appointed by the 18 governor. The commissioner of economic development or his or her desig-19 nee shall serve on the committee and act as the chair of the committee.

20 The committee shall issue a report to the governor, the speaker of the 21 assembly, the temporary president of the senate, the minority leader of 22 the assembly and the minority leader of the senate no later than October 23 1, 2012 on the role that affordable rooms and affordable housing accom-24 modations play in the tourism industry in the state of New York, and the 25 potential economic impact that could result from the elimination or 26 substantial elimination of consumer choices in the market place.

27 The department of economic development shall make its staff and 28 resources available to the committee to compile the report as well as 29 the staff of the division of the budget. Legislative staff may also 30 assist in this effort to the extent as determined by the legislative 31 leaders.

32 S 3. Section 8 of chapter 225 of the laws of 2010 amending the multi-33 ple dwelling law and the administrative code of the city of New York
34 relating to clarifying certain provisions relating to occupancy of class 35 A multiple dwellings, as amended by chapter 566 of the laws of 2010, is 36 amended to read as follows:

37 S 8. This act shall take effect [May 1, 2011] NOVEMBER 30, 2012 and 38 shall apply to all buildings in existence on such effective date and to 39 buildings constructed after such effective date except that prior to 40 such effective date an agency with the duty to enforce the provisions of 41 the multiple dwelling law may promulgate rules and regulations or take 42 other administrative actions to provide for the registration of dwelling 43 units in accordance with the provisions of subdivision 16 of section 67 44 and title 3 of article 4 of the multiple dwelling law, as added by 45 sections two and three of this act, respectively.

46 S 4. This act shall take effect immediately and shall be deemed to 47 have been in full force and effect on and after May 1, 2011.
