AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to notice and record keeping requirements for employers

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1     Section 1. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 195 of the labor
2     law, as amended by chapter 564 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read 3     as follows:
4     (a) provide his or her employees, in writing in English and in the 5     language identified by each employee as the primary language of such 6     employee, at the time of hiring[, and on or before February first of 7     each subsequent year of the employee's employment with the employer], a 8     notice containing the following information: the rate or rates of pay 9     and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, 10    piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the 11    minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular 12    pay day designated by the employer in accordance with section one 13    hundred ninety-one of this article; the name of the employer; any "doing 14    business as" names used by the employer; the physical address of the 15    employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing 16    address if different; the telephone number of the employer; plus such 17    other information as the commissioner deems material and necessary.
18    [Each time the employer provides such notice to an employee, the employer 19    shall obtain from the employee a signed and dated written acknowledgement, 20    in English and in the primary language of the employee, of receipt of 21    this notice, which the employer shall preserve and maintain for six 22    years. Such acknowledgement shall include an affirmation by the employee 23    that the employee accurately identified his or her primary language to 24    the employer, and that the notice provided by the employer to such 25    employee pursuant to this subdivision was in the language so identified 26    or otherwise complied with paragraph (c) of this subdivision, and shall 27    conform to any additional requirements established by the
