- S 2. (a) Within sixty days of the effective date of this act, the commissioner of general services shall provide to the town of Orangetown an accurate survey of all whole parcels of state lands located within the bounds set forth in section three of this act that were declared to be no longer necessary or useful to the purposes of the office of mental health by the commissioner of such agency.
- (b) Within the sixty days following the closing of any sale, conveyance or transfer by the state of any state lands located within the bounds set forth in section three of this act, the commissioner of general services shall provide to the town of Orangetown a written description of all remaining whole parcels of state lands located within the bounds set forth in section three of this act that are to be made available to the town for purchase pursuant to this act.
- (c) Written descriptions of land required by this section shall be of such particularity as the commissioner of general services deems appropriate, provided that such descriptions shall adequately identify any such available whole parcels of state lands for the purpose of procuring a land sale, conveyance or transfer.

EXPLANATION--Matter in ITALICS (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [] is old law to be omitted.
