S 2. Compensation for certain members of the collective negotiating unit designated as the security services collective negotiating unit pursuant to an agreement between the state of New York and the employee organization representing such individuals.

- 1. The provisions of this section shall apply to full-time annual salaried officers and employees in the collective negotiating unit designated as security services collective negotiating unit established pursuant to article 14 of the civil service law (hereinafter "security services unit") who are not eligible for binding interest arbitration pursuant to subdivision 4 of section 209 of the civil service law (hereinafter "employees who are ineligible for interest arbitration").
- 2. Effective April 1, 2009, the basic annual salary of members of the security services unit who are ineligible for interest arbitration and who are in full-time annual salaried employment status on March 31, 2009, shall be increased by three percent.
- 3. Effective April 1, 2010, the basic annual salary of members of the security services unit who are ineligible for interest arbitration and who are in full-time annual salaried employment status on March 31, 2010, shall be increased by four percent.
- 4. Effective March 31, 2011, the basic annual salary of all members of the security services unit who are ineligible for interest arbitration and who are in full-time annual salaried employment status on March 30, 2011 shall be increased by two thousand and seventy-five dollars to reflect the items of uniform cleaning and maintenance allowance and security enforcement differential added to base salary.
- 5. (a) Effective April 1, 2013, a lump sum payment of seven hundred seventy-five dollars shall be made to each member of the security services unit who are ineligible for interest arbitration and in full-time annual salaried employment status who was (i) active on the date of ratification of the agreement between the state and the employee organization representing employees in the security services unit who are ineligible for interest arbitration and (ii) in continuous service, as defined by paragraph (c) of subdivision 3 of section 130 of the civil service law, from that date until April 1, 2013. Such lump sum shall be considered salary for final average salary retirement purposes but shall not become part of basic annual salary. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this subdivision, officers and employees who would have otherwise been eligible to receive such lump sum payment, but who were not on the payroll on such date, shall be eligible for said payment if they return to full-time employment status during the fiscal year 2013-2014 without a break in continuous service.
- (b) Effective April 1, 2014, a lump sum payment of two hundred twenty-five dollars shall be made to each member of the security services unit who are ineligible for interest arbitration and in full-time annual salaried employment status who was (i) active on the date of ratification of the agreement between the state and the employee organization representing employees in the security services unit who are ineligible for interest arbitration and (ii) in continuous service, as defined by paragraph (c) of subdivision 3 of section 130 of the civil service law, from that date until April 1, 2013. Such lump sum shall be considered salary for final average salary retirement purposes but shall not become part of basic annual salary.
- 6. Effective April 1, 2014, the basic annual salary of members of the security services unit who are ineligible for interest arbitration and who are in full-time annual salaried employment status on March 31, 2014, shall be increased by two percent.

7. Effective April 1, 2015, the basic annual salary of members of the security services unit who are ineligible for interest arbitration and who are in full-time annual salaried employment status on March 31, 2015, shall be increased by two percent.

- 8. Advancement within a salary grade. Payments pursuant to the provisions of subdivision 6 of section 131 of the civil service law for annual-salaried members of the security services unit who are entitled to such payments and who are ineligible for interest arbitration shall be payable pursuant to the terms of an agreement between the state of New York and an employee organization representing employees subject to the provisions of this section entered into pursuant to article 14 of the civil service law (hereinafter "the agreement").
- 9. Effective April 1, 2009, pursuant to the terms of the agreement covering members of the security services unit who are ineligible for interest arbitration, for such unit members who are on the institutional or administrative payroll, the ten-year, the fifteen-year, the twenty-year and the twenty-five year longevity step payment for such unit members to whom the provisions of this section apply shall be that amount prescribed by paragraph f of subdivision 1 of section 130 of the civil service law as added by section one of this act.
- 10. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions of this the basic annual salary of such unit members to whom the provisions of this section apply is identical with the hiring rate, performance advance step one, two, three, four or five, the job rate, the ten-year longevity step, the fifteen-year longevity step, the twenty-year longevity step or the twenty-five year longevity step of his or her position on the effective dates of the increases provided in this subdivision, such basic annual salary shall be increased to the hiring rate, performance advance step one, two, three, four or five, the job rate, the tenyear longevity step, the fifteen-year longevity step, the twenty-year longevity step or the twenty-five year longevity step, respectively, of such salary grade as contained in the appropriate salary schedule in subparagraphs 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 of paragraph f of subdivision 1 of section 130 of the civil service law, as added by section one of this act, to take effect on the dates provided in subparagraphs 1, 5, respectively. The increases in basic annual salary provided by this subdivision shall be in lieu of any increase in basic annual salary provided for in subdivisions two, three, four, five, six, seven, and ten of this section.
- 11. If an unencumbered position is one, which if encumbered, would be subject to the provisions of this section, the salary of such position shall be increased by the salary increase amounts specified in this section. If a position is created, and is filled by the appointment of such unit members to whom the provisions of this section apply, the salary otherwise provided for such position shall be increased in the same manner as though such position had been in existence but unencumbered. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the director of the division of the budget may reduce the salary of any such position, which is or becomes vacant.
- 12. The increases in salary payable pursuant to this section shall apply on a prorated basis to officers and employees, otherwise eligible to receive an increase in salary pursuant to this section, who are paid on an hourly or per diem basis, who are employees serving on a part-time or seasonal basis, or who are employees paid on any basis other than at an annual salaried rate; except that the provisions of subdivisions four, eight, nine, and ten of this section shall not apply to employees serving on an hourly, per diem, or seasonal basis, except as determined by the director of the budget.

- 13. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the provisions of this section shall not apply to officers or employees paid on a fee schedule basis.
- 14. In order to provide for the officers and employees to whom this section applies who are not allocated to salary grades, performance advancements and payments in proportion to those provided to persons to whom this section applies who are allocated to salary grades, the director of the budget is authorized to add appropriate adjustments to the compensation which such officers and employees are otherwise entitled to receive. The director of the budget shall issue certificates which shall contain schedules of positions and the salaries thereof for which adjustments are made pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision, and a copy of each such certificate shall be filed with the state comptroller, the department of civil service, the chairman of the senate finance committee and the chairman of the assembly ways and means committee.
- 15. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions of this section, any increase in compensation may be withheld in whole or in part from any such unit members to whom the provisions of this section apply when, in the opinion of the director of the division of the budget and the director of employee relations, such increase is not warranted or is not appropriate for any reason.
- S 3. Additional compensation for certain members of the security services unit.
- 1. Members of the security services unit who are in full-time annual salaried employment status and who are ineligible for interest arbitration.
- (a) In recognition of the general requirement for full-time employees of the state in the security services unit to assemble for briefing prior to the commencement of duties, where and to the extent an agreement so provides, each such employee except such an employee receiving additional compensation pursuant to subdivision 5 of section 134 of the civil service law, shall receive additional compensation in recognition of pre-shift briefing.
- (b) Each such employee holding such a position in the security services unit shall be compensated for pre-shift briefing in accordance with the terms of the agreement covering certain members of the security services unit. Pursuant to that agreement, each such unit member to whom the provisions of this subdivision apply, shall receive a minimum of four dollars eighty cents for each day while in payroll status when such pre-shift briefing time is not otherwise compensated at a greater amount at the one and one-half times the hourly rate of pay provided for by subdivision 1 of section 134 of the civil service law and the rules and regulations of the director of the budget. Effective March 31, 2011, this amount shall be increased to a minimum of six dollars for each day while in payroll status. No payments authorized pursuant to this subdivision and such negotiated agreement shall be made to an employee who is in non-pay status for that day.
- (c) Any such additional compensation pursuant to this subdivision shall be paid in addition to and shall not be a part of the employee's basic annual salary and shall not be included as compensation for the purposes of computation of overtime pay, provided, however, that such additional compensation shall be included for retirement purposes. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this subdivision or of any other law, such additional compensation shall be in lieu of the continuation of any other additional compensation for such employees in recognition of pre-shift briefing.

- S 4. Notwithstanding any law, rule or regulation to the contrary, any employees of the state in the security services unit who are ineligible for interest arbitration and who are eligible for additional compensation pursuant to subdivision 5 of section 134 of the civil service law shall be deemed ineligible for such additional compensation to the extent, in the manner and under the circumstances provided for in a negotiated agreement on behalf of such employees.
- S 5. Uniform cleaning and maintenance allowance and purchase or repair of uniform shoes. In recognition of the general requirement for employees of the state in the security services unit to wear a uniform and to the extent that an agreement so provides, each employee who is ineligible for interest arbitration and on the payroll on the first day of November preceding the annual effective date shall receive an increase in allowance for cleaning and maintenance by three percent to the rate of six hundred eighty-one dollars per year effective December 1, 2009. This amount shall increase by four percent to seven hundred eight dollars per year effective December 1, 2010. Such allowance shall be payable by separate check on or about December 1 of each year. Effective March 31, 2011, the allowance for cleaning and maintenance of uniforms for eligible members shall be increased to the rate of one thousand seventy-five dollars, added to the basic annual salary of those employees in payroll status on March 30, 2011, and thereafter eliminated as a separate payment. Such addition to basic annual salary on March 31, 2011 is specified in subdivision 4 of section two of this act.
 - S 6. Location compensation for certain state officers and employees in the collective negotiating unit designated as security services.
- 1. Pursuant to the terms of an agreement covering certain members of the security services unit who are ineligible for interest arbitration, and notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of law, rule lation to the contrary, all members of the security services unit who are ineligible for interest arbitration, and are full-time annual ried employees and whose principal place of employment or, in the case of a field employee, whose official station as determined in accordance with the regulations of the state comptroller, is in the city of New York or in the county of Nassau, Suffolk, Westchester or Rockland, shall receive, effective April 1, 2009 an increase in locational compensation the amount of three percent to one thousand five hundred ninety-one dollars per year, for employees in full-time annual salaried employment status on March 31, 2009. Effective April 1, 2010 this amount shall increase by four percent to one thousand six hundred fifty-five dollars per year, for employees in full-time annual salaried employment status on March 31, 2010. Effective April 1, 2014, this amount shall two percent to one thousand six hundred eighty-eight dollars per year, for employees in full-time annual salaried employment status March 31, 2014. Effective April 1, 2015, this amount shall increase by two percent to one thousand seven hundred twenty-two dollars per year, for employees in full-time annual salaried employment status on March 31, 2015.
- 2. Pursuant to the terms of an agreement covering certain members of the security services unit who are ineligible for interest arbitration, and notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of law, rule or regulation to the contrary, effective April 1, 2009, all such members of the security services unit who are full-time annual salaried employees and whose principal place of employment or, in the case of a field employee, whose official station as determined in accordance with the regulations of the comptroller is located in the county of Monroe and who were eligible to receive locational pay on May 23, 1985 shall receive locational pay at the rate of two hundred dollars per year provided they continue to be otherwise eligible.

- Pursuant to the terms of an agreement covering certain members of the security services unit who are ineligible for interest arbitration, and notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of law, rule or regulation to the contrary, all such members of the security services unit who are full-time annual salaried employees and whose principal place of employment or, in the case of a field employee, whose official station as determined in accordance with the regulations of the state comptroller, is in the county of Orange, Putnam or Dutchess shall receive an increase in locational compensation by three percent to the amount of eight hundred forty-nine dollars per year effective April 1, 2009, for employees in full-time annual salaried employment status on March 31, 2009. Effective April 1, 2010 this amount shall increase by four percent to eight hundred eighty-three dollars per year, for employees in fulltime annual salaried employment status on March 31, 2010. April 1, 2014, this amount shall increase by two percent to nine hundred one dollars per year, for employees in full-time annual salaried employment status on March 31, 2014. Effective April 1, 2015, this amount shall increase by two percent to nine hundred nineteen dollars per year, for employees in full-time annual salaried employment status on March 31, 2015.
- 4. The locational compensation as set out in all subdivisions of this section shall be equally divided over the 26 payroll periods in each fiscal year and be in addition to and shall not be a part of an employee's basic annual salary, and shall not affect or impair any performance advance or other rights or benefits to which an employee may be entitled by law, provided, however, that locational pay shall be included as compensation for the purposes of computation of overtime pay and for retirement purposes.
- S 7. Continuation of locational compensation for certain officers and employees of the Hudson Valley developmental disabilities services office.
- 1. Notwithstanding any law, rule or regulation to the contrary, any officer or employee of the Hudson Valley developmental disabilities services office represented in the security services unit who is ineligible for interest arbitration and who is receiving locational pay pursuant to section 5 of chapter 174 of the laws of 1993 shall continue to receive such locational pay under the conditions and at the rates specified by such section 5 of chapter 174 of the laws of 1993.
- 2. Notwithstanding any law, rule or regulation to the contrary, any officer or employee of the Hudson Valley developmental disabilities services office represented in the security services unit who is ineligible for interest arbitration and who is receiving locational pay pursuant to subdivision 2 of section 11 of chapter 3 of the laws of 1996 shall continue to receive such locational pay under the conditions and at the rates specified by such subdivision 2 of section 11 of chapter 3 of the laws of 1996.
- 3. Notwithstanding this section or any other law, rule or regulation to the contrary, any officer or employee of the Hudson Valley developmental disabilities services office represented in the security services unit who is ineligible for interest arbitration and who is receiving locational pay pursuant to said section seven of this act shall continue to be eligible for such locational pay if such officer's or employee's principal place of employment is changed to a location outside of the county of Rockland as the result of a reduction or redeployment of staff, provided, however, that such officer or employee is reassigned to or otherwise appointed or promoted to a different position at another work location within such Hudson Valley developmental disabilities services office located outside of the county of Rockland. The rate of such continued locational pay shall not exceed the rate such officer or employee is receiving on the date of such reassignment, appointment or promotion.

- S 8. Facility security pay. Pursuant to the terms of an agreement covering certain members of the security services unit who are ineligible for interest arbitration, are full-time annual salaried employees and, notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of law, rule or regulation to the contrary, where and to the extent that an agreement so provides, effective March 31, 2011, such eligible members of the security services unit shall receive an increase of two hundred twenty dollars to seven hundred fifty dollars annually. This payment will be equally divided over the 26 payroll periods in each fiscal year and shall count as compensation for overtime and retirement purposes.
- S 9. Security enforcement differential. Pursuant to the terms of agreement covering certain members of the security services unit who are ineligible for interest arbitration, are full-time annual salaried employees and, notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of law, or regulation to the contrary, where and to the extent that an agreement provides, such eligible members of the security services unit shall receive a security enforcement differential to be paid in recognition of the enhanced security and law enforcement responsibilities inherent the positions covered by such bargaining unit. Effective April 1, 2009, such payment shall increase by three percent for eligible unit members to six hundred eighty-two dollars and, effective April 2010, 1, payment shall increase by four percent to eligible unit members to seven hundred nine dollars. This payment will be equally divided over the 26 payroll periods in each fiscal year and shall count as compensation for overtime and retirement purposes. Effective March 31, 2011, the security enforcement differential rate shall be increased to the rate of one thousand dollars, added to the basic annual salary of those employees in payroll status on March 30, 2011, and thereafter eliminated as a separate payment. Such addition to basic annual salary on March 31, 2011 is specified in subdivision 4 of section two of this act.
- S 10. Inconvenience pay program. Pursuant to chapter 333 of the laws of 1969, as amended, and an agreement covering certain members of the security services unit who are ineligible for interest arbitration, are full-time annual salaried employees and, notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of law, rule or regulation to the contrary, where and to the extent that an agreement so provides, effective April 1, 2009, the inconvenience pay provided to eligible employees shall be increased by three percent to six hundred two dollars per year for working four or more hours between the hours of 6:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m., except on an overtime basis. Effective April 1, 2010, the inconvenience pay provided to eligible employees shall be increased by four percent to six hundred twenty-six dollars per year for working four or more hours between the hours of 6:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m., except on an overtime basis.
- S 11. Notwithstanding any provision of law, rule or regulation to the contrary, the appropriations contained in this act shall be available to the state of New York for the payment and publication of grievance and arbitration settlements and awards pursuant to articles 7 and 8 of the agreement covering employees in the security services unit who are ineligible for interest arbitration.

- S 12. The salary increases and benefit modifications provided for by this act for state employees in the security services unit who are ineligible for interest arbitration shall not be implemented until the director of employee relations shall have delivered to the director of the budget and the comptroller a letter indicating that there is in effect with respect to such negotiating unit a collective negotiation agreement which provides for such increases and modifications and which is fully executed in writing with the state pursuant to article 14 of the civil service law, and ratified pursuant to the ratification procedure of the employee organization certified pursuant to article 14 of the civil service law to represent such collective negotiating unit.
- S 13. Date of entitlement to salary increase. Notwithstanding provisions of this act or of any other provision of law, rule or regulation to the contrary, the increase in salary or compensation of the security services unit who are ineligible for interest arbitration provided by this act shall be added to the salary of member at the beginning of that payroll period the first day of which is nearest to the effective date of such increase as provided in this act, or at the beginning of the earlier of two payroll periods the first days of which are nearest but equally near to the effective date of such increase as provided in this act; provided, however, that for the purposes of determining the salary of such unit members upon reclassification, reallocation, appointment, promotion, transfer, demotion, reinstatement, or other change of status, such salary increase shall be deemed to be effective on the date thereof as prescribed by this act, with payment thereof pursuant to this section on a date prior thereto, instead of on such effective date, and shall not operate to confer any additional salary rights or benefits on such unit members. Payment of such salary increase may be deferred pursuant to section fourteen of this act.
- S 14. Deferred payment of salary increase. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other section of this act, or of any other law, rule or regulation, pending payment pursuant to this act of the basic annual salaries of incumbents of positions subject to this act such incumbents shall receive, as partial compensation for services rendered, the rate of compensation otherwise payable in their respective positions. An incumbent holding a position subject to this act at any time during the period from April 1, 2009, until the time when basic annual salaries are first paid pursuant to this act for such services in excess of the compensation actually received therefore, shall be entitled to a lump sum payment for the difference between the salary to which such incumbent is entitled for such services and the compensation actually received therefor. Such payment shall be made in accordance with the agreement of the parties.
- S 15. Use of appropriations. The comptroller is authorized to pay any amounts required during the fiscal year commencing April 1, 2012 by the foregoing provisions of this act for any state department or agency from any appropriation or other funds available to such state department or agency for personal service or for other related employee benefits during such fiscal year. To the extent that such appropriations in any fund are insufficient to accomplish the purposes herein set forth, the director of the division of the budget is authorized to allocate to the various departments and agencies, from any appropriations available in any fund, the amounts necessary to pay such amounts. The aforementioned appropriations shall be available for payment of any liabilities or obligations incurred prior to or during the state fiscal year commencing April 1, 2012.

- S 16. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, and in accordance with section 4 of the state finance law, upon request of the director of the budget, the comptroller is hereby authorized and directed to transfer up to $25,085,000 from the general fund to the mental hygiene account (10) in the miscellaneous state special revenue fund (339) to carry out the provisions of section eighteen of this act.
- S 17. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, and in accordance with section 4 of the state finance law, upon request of the director of the budget, the comptroller is hereby authorized and directed to transfer up to $9,346,000 from the general fund to the mental hygiene patient income account (13) in the miscellaneous state special revenue fund (339) to carry out the provisions of section eighteen of this act.
- S 18. The several amounts as hereinafter set forth, or so much thereof as may be necessary, are hereby appropriated from the fund so designated for use by any state department or agency for the fiscal year beginning April 1, 2012 to supplement appropriations from each respective fund available for personal service, other than personal service and fringe benefits, and to carry out the provisions of this act. Moreover, the amounts appropriated as non-personal service may be suballocated to any state department or agency as needed. The monies hereby appropriated are available for payment of any liabilities or obligations incurred prior to or during the state fiscal year commencing April 1, 2012. No money shall be available for expenditure from this appropriation until a certificate of approval has been issued by the director of the division of the budget and a copy of such certificate or any amendment thereto has been filed with the state comptroller, the chairman of the senate finance committee and the chairman of the assembly ways and means committee.
