For taxable years before January 1, 2015, the owners of all that tract or parcel of land described above shall be allowed a credit as hereinafter provided, against the tax imposed by article 22 of the tax law, in amount equal to one hundred percent of the amount of credit allowed the taxpayer with respect to a certified historic structure under subsection (a) (2) of section 47 of the federal internal revenue code with respect to a certified historic structure located within the state; provided, however, the credit shall not exceed five million dollars. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2015, the owners of that tract or parcel of land described above shall be allowed a credit as hereinafter provided, against the tax imposed by article 22 of the law, in an amount equal to thirty percent of the amount of credit allowed the taxpayer with respect to a certified historic structure under subsection (a)(2) of section 47 of the federal internal revenue code with respect to a certified historic structure located within state; provided, however, the credit shall not exceed one hundred thousand dollars. Tax credits allowed pursuant to this section shall be allowed in the taxable year that the qualified rehabilitation is placed in service under section 167 of the federal internal revenue code.

If the taxpayer is a partner in a partnership or a shareholder of a New York S corporation, then the credit cap imposed by this section shall be applied at the entity level, so that the aggregate credit allowed to all the partners or shareholders of each such entity in the taxable year does not exceed the credit cap that is applicable in that taxable year.

If the credit allowed the taxpayer pursuant to section 47 of the internal revenue code with respect to a qualified rehabilitation is recaptured pursuant to subsection (a) of section 50 of the internal revenue code, a portion of the credit allowed under this section must be added back in the same taxable year and in the same proportion as the federal recapture. If the amount of the credit allowable under this section for any taxable year shall exceed the taxpayer's tax for such year, the excess may be carried over to the following year or years, and may be applied against the taxpayer's tax for such year or years.

S 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
