

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION honoring Albany County teen delegate Rachel Lee upon the occasion of her designation for special recognition by the Cornell Cooperative Extension 4-H Program

WHEREAS, It is the sense of this Legislative Body to recognize and pay tribute to young people of the great Empire State who have made strong contributions to their communities and who serve as role models for their peers; and

WHEREAS, Attendant to such concern, and in full accord with its long-standing traditions, this Legislative Body is justly proud to honor Albany County teen delegate Rachel Lee upon the occasion of her designation for special recognition by the Cornell Cooperative Extension 4-H Program at the 4-H Capital Days Legislative Breakfast on Tuesday, March 5, 2013; and

WHEREAS, The event, which is coordinated by the Cornell Cooperative Extension 4-H Program, will involve numerous teen delegates representing nearly every county in New York State; and

WHEREAS, Seventeen year old Rachel Lee lives in Voorheesville, New York; she attends Clayton A. Bouton High School and is looking forward to the opportunity to see the State Legislature in action; and

WHEREAS, Poised eagerly with enthusiasm and determined purpose, Rachel Lee now stands honorably, with just pride in her accomplishments and in eager anticipation of future challenges, understanding and appreciating the caring counsel and support provided by her teachers, coaches and parents; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to honor Albany County teen delegate Rachel Lee upon the occasion of her designation for special recognition by the Cornell Cooperative Extension 4-H Program; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to Rachel Lee.
