24 is found guilty of the charge for which he has been arrested.

PART S

Section 1. Legislative findings. The legislature hereby finds and determines:

1. In 2011 and 2012, three storms of enormous magnitude - Hurricane Irene, Tropical Storm Lee and Superstorm Sandy - each battered New York, causing billions of dollars of damage to roads, buildings and other infrastructure. The three storms collectively resulted in millions of residential, business and industrial customers of electric utilities losing electricity for extended periods of time.

2. Each of these storms caused, among other things, a disruption in the distribution and supply of motor fuels, and in the case of Superstorm Sandy, downstate motorists were unable to obtain routine supplies of fuel for several weeks.

3. In addition, temporary fuel distribution disruptions associated with the aftermath of a storm can result in emergency vehicles and responders unable to adequately address ongoing public safety and health emergencies, delay an appropriate response to infrastructure damages caused by a storm, and otherwise disrupt commerce in the state due to difficulty to obtain readily available motor fuels.

4. On November 15, 2012, in response to Superstorm Sandy, Governor Andrew M. Cuomo announced the creation of the NYS Ready Commission and tasked it with finding ways to ensure critical systems and services are prepared for future natural disasters and other emergencies. As related to this act, the Commission was tasked with addressing vulnerabilities in the state's energy systems.

5. The NYS Ready Commission recommended, among other things, to require that retail gasoline outlets located in strategic locations have on-site back-up power capacity to ensure that such outlets can continue fuel sales operations during a long-term electric outage. The purpose of

1 this act is to ensure that the state is better situated in the future to
2 address the temporary disruption of retail fuel supplies.

3 S 2. The agriculture and markets law is amended by adding a new
4 section 192-h to read as follows:
