AN ACT to amend the agriculture and markets law and the general business law, in relation to the sale of animals

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Section 403 of the agriculture and markets law is amended
2 by adding a new subdivision 10-a to read as follows:
3 10-A. ANY FINES IMPOSED UPON A PET DEALER IN ACCORDANCE WITH THIS 4 ARTICLE AND ARTICLE THIRTY-FIVE-D OF THE GENERAL BUSINESS LAW SHALL BE 5 SATISFIED PRIOR TO THE ISSUANCE OF A LICENSE OR RENEWAL THEREOF PURSUANT 6 TO THIS ARTICLE AND ARTICLE THIRTY-FIVE-D OF THE GENERAL BUSINESS LAW.
7 S 2. Subdivision 2 of section 406 of the agriculture and markets law, 8 as added by chapter 259 of the laws of 2000, is amended to read as 9 follows:
10 2. Violation of any provision of this article, is a civil offense, for 11 which a penalty of not less than [fifty] ONE HUNDRED FIFTY dollars and 12 not more than one thousand dollars for each violation may be imposed.
13 S 3. Subdivision 1 of section 753 of the general business law, as 14 added by chapter 431 of the laws of 1988, the opening paragraph as 15 amended and such section as renumbered by chapter 68 of the laws of 16 1993, is amended to read as follows:
17 1. If, within fourteen business days following the sale of an animal 18 subject to this article or receipt of the written notice required by 19 section seven hundred fifty-four of this article, whichever occurred 20 last, a veterinarian of the consumer's choosing, licensed by a state 21 certifies such animal to be unfit for purchase due to illness[, a 22 congenital malformation which adversely affects the health of the 23 animal,] or the presence of symptoms of a contagious or infectious disease, OR IF, WITHIN ONE HUNDRED EIGHTY CALENDAR DAYS FOLLOWING SUCH SALE OR RECEIPT, WHICHEVER OCCURRED LAST, A LICENSED VETERINARIAN CERTIFIES SUCH ANIMAL TO BE UNFIT FOR PURCHASE DUE TO A CONGENITAL MALFORMATION WHICH ADVERSELY AFFECTS THE HEALTH OF THE ANIMAL, the pet dealer shall afford the consumer the right to choose one of the following options:

(a) The right to return the animal and receive a refund of the purchase price including sales tax and reasonable veterinary costs directly related to the veterinarian's certification that the animal is unfit for purchase pursuant to this section;

(b) The right to return the animal and to receive an exchange animal of the consumer's choice of equivalent value and reasonable veterinary costs directly related to the veterinarian's certification that the animal is unfit for purchase pursuant to this section; or

(c) The right to retain the animal and to receive reimbursement from a pet dealer for veterinary services from a licensed veterinarian of the consumer's choosing, for the purpose of curing or attempting to cure the animal. The reasonable value of reimbursable services rendered to cure or attempting to cure the animal shall not exceed the purchase price of the animal. The value of such services is reasonable if comparable to the value of similar services rendered by other licensed veterinarians in proximity to the treating veterinarian. Such reimbursement shall not include the costs of initial veterinary examination fees and diagnostic fees not directly related to the veterinarian's certification that the animal is unfit for purchase pursuant to this section.

The commissioner by regulations shall prescribe a form for, and the content of, the certification that an animal is unfit for purchase, which shall be provided by an examining veterinarian to a consumer upon the examination of an animal which is subject to the provisions of this section. Such form shall include, but not be limited to, information which identifies the type of animal, the owner, the date and diagnosis of the animal, the treatment recommended if any, and an estimate or the actual cost of such treatment. Such form shall also include the notice prescribed in section seven hundred [forty-three] FIFTY-FOUR of this article.

The commissioner by regulations shall prescribe information which shall be provided in writing by the pet dealer to the consumer upon the sale of the animal. Such information shall include, but not be limited to, a description, including breed of the animal, the date of purchase, the name, address and telephone number of the consumer, and the amount of the purchase. The pet dealer shall certify such information by signing the document in which it is contained.

S 4. Section 753-b of the general business law, as added by chapter 259 of the laws of 2000, paragraph (f) of subdivision 2 as added by chapter 598 of the laws of 2008, is amended to read as follows:

S 753-b. Information statement for purchaser. Every pet dealer shall deliver to the purchaser of an animal, at the time of sale, a written statement in a standardized form prescribed by the commissioner of agriculture and markets containing the following information:

1. For cats:

(a) The breeder's AND, IF APPLICABLE, BROKER'S name and address, if known, or, if not known, the source of the cat. If the person from whom the cat was obtained is a dealer licensed by the United States department of agriculture, the person's name, address, and federal identification number;

1 (b) The date of the cat's birth, unless unknown because of the source
2 of the cat, the date the pet dealer received the cat, and the location 3 where the cat was received;

4 (c) A record of immunizations and worming treatments administered, if 5 any, to the cat as of the time of sale while the cat was in the 6 possession of the pet dealer, including the dates of administration and 7 the type of vaccines or worming treatments administered;

8 (d) A record of any known disease, sickness, or congenital condition 9 that adversely affects the health of the cat at the time of sale;

10 (e) A record of any veterinary treatment or medication received by the 11 cat while in the possession of the pet dealer and either of the follow-
12 ing:

13 (i) A statement, signed by the pet dealer at the time of sale, indi-
14 cating all of the following: (1) The cat has no known disease or 15 illness; (2) The cat has no known congenital or hereditary condition 16 that adversely affects the health of the cat at the time of sale; or

17 (ii) A record of any known congenital or hereditary condition, 18 disease, or illness that adversely affects the health of the cat at the 19 time of sale, along with a statement signed by a licensed veterinarian 20 that authorizes the sale of the cat, recommends necessary treatment, if 21 any, and verifies that the condition, disease or illness does not 22 require hospitalization or [nonelective] NON-ELECTIVE surgical proce-23 dures, and is not likely to require hospitalization or [nonelective]
24 NON-ELECTIVE surgical procedures in the future. A veterinarian statement 25 is not required for intestinal or external parasites unless their pres-26 ence makes the cat clinically ill or is likely to make the cat clin-
27 ically ill. The statement shall be valid for fourteen business days 28 following examination of the cat by the veterinarian.

29 2. For dogs:

30 (a) The breeder's AND, IF APPLICABLE, BROKER'S name and address, if 31 known, or if not known, the source of the dog. If the person from whom 32 the dog was obtained is a dealer licensed by the United States depart-33 ment of agriculture, the person's name, address, and federal identifica-34 tion number;

35 (b) The date of the dog's birth and the date AND LOCATION the pet
36 dealer received the dog. If the dog is not advertised or sold as a pure-37 bred, registered or registrable, the date of birth may be approximated 38 if not known by the seller;

39 (c) The breed, sex, color and identifying marks at the time of sale.
40 If the dog is from a United States department of agriculture licensed 41 source, the individual identifying tag, tattoo, or collar number for 42 that animal. If the breed is unknown or mixed, the record shall so indi-43 cate. If the dog is being sold as being capable of registration, the 44 names and registration numbers of the sire and dam, and the litter 45 number, if known;

46 (d) A record of inoculations and worming treatments administered, if 47 any, to the dog as of the time of sale while the dog was in the 48 possession of the pet dealer, including dates of administration and the 49 type of vaccines and/or worming treatments administered;

51 dog while in the possession of the pet dealer and either of the follow-
52 ing:

53 (i) A statement, signed by the pet dealer at the time of sale, indi-
54 cating all of the following: (1) The dog has no known disease or 55 illness; (2) The dog has no known congenital or hereditary condition 56 that adversely affects the health of the dog at the time of the sale; or

1 (ii) A record of any known congenital or hereditary condition, disease 2 or illness that adversely affects the health of the dog at the time of 3 sale, along with a statement signed by a licensed veterinarian that 4 authorizes the sale of the dog, recommends necessary treatment, if any, 5 and verifies that the condition, disease, or illness does not require 6 hospitalization or [nonelective] NON-ELECTIVE surgical procedures, and 7 is not likely to require hospitalization or [nonelective] NON-ELECTIVE
8 surgical procedures in the future. A veterinarian statement is not 9 required for intestinal or external parasites unless their presence 10 makes the dog clinically ill or is likely to make the dog clinically
11 ill. The statement shall be valid for fourteen business days following 12 examination of the dog by the veterinarian.

13 (f) Notification that dogs residing in New York state must be 14 licensed, and that a license may be obtained from the municipality in 15 which the dog resides.

16 3. A disclosure made pursuant to subdivision one or two of this 17 section shall be signed by both the pet dealer certifying the accuracy 18 of the statement and the purchaser acknowledging receipt of the state-19 ment. At the time of sale, each pet dealer shall provide the purchaser 20 with information on the value of spaying and neutering of dogs and cats.

21 4. Every pet dealer shall post conspicuously within close proximity to 22 the cages of dogs and cats offered for sale, a notice containing the 23 following language in one hundred-point type: "Information on the source 24 of these dogs and cats and the veterinary treatments received by these 25 dogs and cats is available for review by prospective purchasers."

26 S 5. Subdivision 1 of section 755 of the general business law, as 27 amended by chapter 259 of the laws of 2000, is amended and a new subdi-28 vision 1-b is added to read as follows:

29 1. In addition to the other remedies provided, whenever there shall be 30 a violation of this article, application may be made by the attorney 31 general in the name of the people of the state of New York to a court or 32 justice having jurisdiction by a special proceeding to issue an injunc-33 tion, and upon notice to the defendant of not less than five days, to 34 enjoin and restrain the continuance of such violations; and if it shall 35 appear to the satisfaction of the court or justice that the defendant 36 has, in fact, violated this article, an injunction may be issued by such 37 court or justice, enjoining and restraining any further violation, with-38 out requiring proof that any person has, in fact, been injured or 39 damaged thereby. In any such proceeding, the court may make allowances 40 to the attorney general as provided in paragraph six of subdivision (a) 41 of section eighty-three hundred three of the civil practice law and 42 rules, and direct restitution. Whenever the court shall determine that a 43 violation of this article has occurred, the court may impose a civil 44 penalty of not less than [fifty] ONE HUNDRED FIFTY dollars and not more 45 than one thousand dollars. In connection with any such proposed applica-46 tion, the attorney general is authorized to take proof and make a deter-47 mination of the relevant facts and to issue subpoenas in accordance with 48 the civil practice law and rules.

49 1-B. ANY FINES IMPOSED UPON A PET DEALER IN ACCORDANCE WITH THIS 50 SECTION AND SECTIONS FOUR HUNDRED FOUR AND FOUR HUNDRED SIX OF THE AGRI-51 CULTURE AND MARKETS LAW SHALL BE SATISFIED PRIOR TO THE ISSUANCE OF A 52 LICENSE OR RENEWAL THEREOF UNDER THIS ARTICLE.

53 S 6. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 54 it shall have become a law.
