Introduced by Sen. MARCHIONE -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Veterans, Homeland Security and Military Affairs

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to providing for an increase in the rates of annuities payable to veterans and surviving spouses of veterans

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Section 362 of the executive law, as amended by chapter 251
2 of the laws of 2004, is amended to read as follows:
3 S 362. Creation of annuity. 1. Payment to veterans. a. Any veteran as 4 defined in this article who has been or is hereafter classified by the 5 New York State commission for the visually handicapped as a blind person
6 as defined in section three of chapter four hundred fifteen of the laws
7 of nineteen hundred thirteen, as amended, and continues to be a blind 8 person within the meaning of that section, shall, upon application to 9 the director of the division of veterans' affairs, be paid out of the 10 treasury of the state for such term as such veteran shall be entitled 11 thereto under the provisions of this article, the sum of one thousand 12 FIVE HUNDRED dollars annually, plus any applicable annual adjustment, as 13 provided in this section.
14 b. The entitlement of any veteran to receive the annuity herein
15 provided shall terminate upon his or her ceasing to continue to be a 16 resident of and domiciled in the state, but such entitlement may be 17 reinstated upon application to the director of veterans' affairs, if 18 such veteran shall thereafter resume his or her residence and domicile
19 in the state.
20 c. The effective date of an award of the annuity to a veteran shall be 21 the date of receipt of the application therefor by the director of 22 veterans' affairs, except that if the application is denied but is 23 granted at a later date upon an application for reconsideration based 24 upon new evidence, the effective date of the award of the annuity to a 25 veteran shall be the date of receipt of the application for reconsider-
26 ation by the director of veterans' affairs.

EXPLANATION--Matter in ITALICS (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [] is old law to be omitted.

1 2. Payment to widows and widowers of blind veterans. a. The unremar-
2 ried spouse of a veteran who heretofore has died or the unremarried
3 spouse of a veteran dying hereafter, such veteran being at the time of 4 her or his death a recipient of, or eligible for, the benefits above
5 provided, shall, upon application to the director of veterans' affairs,
6 also be paid out of the treasury of the state the sum of one thousand
7 FIVE HUNDRED dollars annually, plus any applicable annual adjustment, 8 for such term as such unremarried spouse shall be entitled thereto under 9 the provisions of this article.

10 b. The entitlement of any widow or widower to receive the annuity 11 herein provided shall terminate upon her or his death or re-marriage or 12 upon her or his ceasing to continue to be a resident of and domiciled in 13 the state of New York, but such entitlement may be reinstated upon 14 application to the director of veterans' affairs, if such widow or 15 widower shall thereafter resume her or his residence and domicile in the 16 state.

17 c. The effective date of an award of the annuity to a widow or widower
18 shall be the day after the date of death of the veteran if the applica-
19 tion therefor is received within one year from such date of death. If 20 the application is received after the expiration of the first year
21 following the date of the death of the veteran, the effective date of an 22 award of the annuity to a widow or widower shall be the date of receipt
23 of the application by the director of veterans' affairs. If an applica-24 tion is denied but is granted at a later date upon an application for 25 reconsideration based upon new evidence, the effective date of the award 26 of the annuity to a widow or widower shall be the date of receipt of the 27 application for reconsideration by the director of veterans' affairs.

28 3. Annual adjustment. Commencing [in the year two thousand five] ON 29 DECEMBER FIRST, TWO THOUSAND THIRTEEN, and for each year thereafter, the 30 amount of any annuity payable under this section shall be the same
31 amount as the annuity payable in the preceding year [plus a percentage
32 adjustment equal to the annual percentage increase, if any, for compen-
33 sation and pension benefits administered by the United States Department
34 of Veterans' Affairs in the previous year], INCREASED BY THE SAME
35 PERCENTAGE AS THE PERCENTAGE BY WHICH BENEFIT AMOUNTS PAYABLE UNDER 36 TITLE II OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT (42 USC 401 ET SEQ.) ARE INCREASED
37 EFFECTIVE DECEMBER FIRST, TWO THOUSAND THIRTEEN. Such percentage
38 increase shall be rounded up to the next highest one-tenth of one
39 percent and shall not be less than one percent nor more than four 40 percent. Commencing [in the year two thousand five] ON DECEMBER FIRST, 41 TWO THOUSAND THIRTEEN, the director of veterans' affairs, not later than 42 February first of each year, shall publish by any reasonable means the 43 amount of the annuity as adjusted payable under this section.

44 S 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
