21 ance at an appropriate educational or vocational program, unless 22 evidence is submitted that such enrollment or attendance is unnecessary

25 foster care youth; and

44 brought pursuant to this [section] ARTICLE, the court finds a compelling 45 reason that it is in the best interests of the former foster care youth 46 to be returned immediately to the custody of the APPROPRIATE local 47 commissioner of social services or [other officer, board or department
48 authorized to receive children as public charges], IN THE CASE OF A 49 CHILD FREED FOR ADOPTION, THE APPROPRIATE LOCAL COMMISSIONER OF SOCIAL 50 SERVICES OR AUTHORIZED AGENCY INTO WHOSE CUSTODY AND GUARDIANSHIP THE

10 social services district] to allow a former foster care youth to re-en-11 ter care is unreasonable if:

12 (i) the youth has no reasonable alternative to foster care;
13 (ii) the youth consents to enrollment in and attendance at an appro-

15 compelling reason that such enrollment or attendance is unnecessary or 16 inappropriate, given the particular circumstances of the youth; and 18 foster CARE youth.

19 (3) Upon making a determination on a motion filed pursuant to this 20 [section] ARTICLE, where a motion has previously been granted pursuant

22 required by this [section] ARTICLE, the court shall grant the motion to 23 return a former foster care youth to the custody of the APPROPRIATE 24 local commissioner of social services or [other officer, board or 25 department authorized to receive children as public charges] IF APPLICA-
26 BLE, THE AUTHORIZED AGENCY only:

30 such former foster care youth to return to care pursuant to this para-31 graph; and

32 (iii) upon consideration of the former foster care youth's compliance 33 with previous orders of the court, including the youth's previous 34 participation in an appropriate educational or vocational program, if 35 applicable.

36 S 5. Subparagraph (E) of paragraph (i) of subdivision (b) of section 37 1055 of the family court act, as amended by chapter 342 of the laws of 38 2010, is amended to read as follows:

39 (E) where the permanency goal is return to the parent and it is antic-
40 ipated that the child may be finally discharged to his or her parent 41 before the next scheduled permanency hearing, the court may provide the 42 local social services district with authority to finally discharge the 43 child to the parent without further court hearing, provided that ten 44 days prior written notice is served upon the court and the attorney for 45 the child. If the court on its own motion or the attorney for the child 46 on motion to the court does not request the matter to be brought for 47 review before final discharge, no further permanency hearings will be 48 required. The local social services district may also discharge the 49 child on a trial basis to the parent unless the court has prohibited
50 such trial discharge or unless the court has conditioned such trial
51 discharge on another event. For the purposes of this section, trial
52 discharge shall mean that the child is physically returned to the parent 53 while the child remains in the care and custody of the local social 54 services district. Permanency hearings shall continue to be held for any 55 child who has returned to his or her parents on a trial discharge. Where 56 the permanency goal for a youth aging out of foster care is another

1 planned permanent living arrangement that includes a significant 2 connection to an adult willing to be a permanency resource for the 3 youth, the local social services district may also discharge the youth 4 on a trial basis to the planned permanent living arrangements, unless 5 the court has prohibited or otherwise conditioned such a trial 6 discharge. Trial discharge for a youth aging out of foster care shall 7 mean that a youth is physically discharged but the local social services 8 district retains care and custody or custody and guardianship of the 9 youth and there remains a date certain for the scheduled permanency 10 hearing. Trial discharge for a youth aging out of foster care may be 11 extended at each scheduled permanency hearing, until the child reaches 12 the age of twenty-one, if a child over the age of eighteen consents to 13 such extension. Prior to finally discharging a youth aging out of foster 14 care to another planned permanent living arrangement, the local social 15 services official shall give the youth notice of the right to apply to 16 reenter foster care within the earlier of twenty-four months of the 17 final discharge or the youth's twenty-first birthday in accordance with 18 article ten-B of this act. Such notice shall also advise the youth that 19 reentry into foster care will only be available where the former foster 20 care youth has no reasonable alternative to foster care and consents to 21 enrollment in and attendance at an appropriate educational or vocational 22 program in accordance with paragraph two of subdivision [(a)] (D) of 23 section one thousand ninety-one of this act. Children placed under this 24 section shall be placed until the court completes the initial permanency 25 hearing scheduled pursuant to article ten-A of this act. Should the 26 court determine pursuant to article ten-A of this act that placement 27 shall be extended beyond completion of the scheduled permanency hearing, 28 such extended placement and any such successive extensions of placement 29 shall expire at the completion of the next scheduled permanency hearing, 30 unless the court shall determine, pursuant to article ten-A of this act, 31 to continue to extend such placement.

32 S 6. Subdivision (e) of section 1055 of the family court act, as 33 amended by chapter 342 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as 34 follows:

35 (e) No placement may be made or continued under this section beyond 36 the child's eighteenth birthday without his or her consent and in no
37 event past his or her twenty-first birthday. However, a former foster 38 care youth under the age of twenty-one who was previously discharged 39 from foster care due to a failure to consent to continuation of place-40 ment may make a motion pursuant to section one thousand ninety-one of 41 this act to return to the custody of the local commissioner of social 42 services or other officer, board or department authorized to receive 43 children as public charges. In such motion, the youth must consent to 44 enrollment in and attendance at a vocational or educational program in 45 accordance with paragraph two of subdivision [(a)] (D) of section one 46 thousand ninety-one of this act.

47 S 7. Clause (C) of subparagraph (viii) of paragraph 2 of subdivision
48 (d) of section 1089 of the family court act, as amended by chapter 342
49 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

50 (C) Where the permanency goal is return to parent and it is antic-
51 ipated that the child may be returned home before the next scheduled 52 permanency hearing, the court may provide the local social services
53 district with authority to finally discharge the child to the parent 54 without further court hearing, provided that ten days prior written 55 notice is served upon the court and attorney for the child. If the court 56 on its own motion or the attorney for the child on motion to the court

1 does not request the matter to be brought for review before final 2 discharge, no further permanency hearings will be required. The local 3 social services district may also discharge the child on a trial basis 4 to the parent unless the court has prohibited such trial discharge or 5 unless the court has conditioned such trial discharge on another event.
6 For the purposes of this section, trial discharge shall mean that the 7 child is physically returned to the parent while the child remains in 8 the care and custody of the local social services district. Permanency 9 hearings shall continue to be held for any child who has returned to his 10 or her parents on a trial discharge. Where the permanency goal for a 11 youth aging out of foster care is another planned permanent living 12 arrangement that includes a significant connection to an adult willing 13 to be a permanency resource for the youth, the local social services 14 district may also discharge the youth on a trial basis to the planned 15 permanent living arrangements, unless the court has prohibited or other-16 wise conditioned such a trial discharge. Trial discharge for a youth 17 aging out of foster care shall mean that the youth is physically 18 discharged but the local social services district retains care and 19 custody or custody and guardianship of the child and there remains a 20 date certain for the scheduled permanency hearing. Trial discharge for a 21 youth aging out of foster care may be extended at each scheduled perman-22 ency hearing, until the youth reaches the age of twenty-one, if a youth 23 over the age of eighteen consents to such extension. Prior to finally 24 discharging a youth aging out of foster care to another planned perma-25 nent living arrangement, the local social services official shall give 26 the youth notice of the right to apply to reenter foster care within the 27 earlier of twenty-four months of the final discharge or the youth's 28 twenty-first birthday in accordance with article ten-B of this act. Such 29 notice shall also advise the youth that reentry into foster care will 30 only be available where the former foster care youth has no reasonable 31 alternative to foster care and consents to enrollment in and attendance 32 at an appropriate educational or vocational program in accordance with 33 paragraph two of subdivision [(a)] (D) of section one thousand ninety-34 one of this act.

35 S 8. Subparagraph (E) of paragraph (i) of subdivision (b) of section 36 1055 of the family court act, as amended by chapter 41 of the laws of 37 2010, is REPEALED.

38 S 9. Clause (C) of subparagraph (viii) of paragraph 2 of subdivision 39 (d) of section 1089 of the family court act, as amended by chapter 41 of 40 the laws of 2010, is REPEALED.

41 S 10. This act shall take effect immediately.

REPEAL NOTE: The amendments made to subparagraph (E) of paragraph (i) of subdivision (b) of section 1055 and to clause (C) of subparagraph (viii) of paragraph 2 of subdivision (d) of section 1089 of the family court act by sections 67 and 80, respectively, by chapter 41 of the laws of 2010 substitute "child's attorney" for "law guardian" but do not contain the amendments contained in chapter 342 of the laws of 2010. Chapter 342 of the laws of 2010 uses the equivalent phrase "attorney for the child."
