1 Section 1. Section 70 of the domestic relations law is amended by 2 adding a new subdivision (c) to read as follows:
3 (C) NOTWITHSTANDING ANY OTHER PROVISION OF LAW TO THE CONTRARY, THE
4 COURT SHALL NOT CONSIDER THE PAST OR CURRENT DEPLOYMENT, OR POSSIBLE

1 S 3. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 240 of the domestic 2 relations law, as amended by chapter 476 of the laws of 2009, is amended 3 and a new subdivision 1-d is added to read as follows:

4 (a) In any action or proceeding brought (1) to annul a marriage or to 5 declare the nullity of a void marriage, or (2) for a separation, or (3)
6 for a divorce, or (4) to obtain, by a writ of habeas corpus or by peti-7 tion and order to show cause, the custody of or right to visitation with 8 any child of a marriage, the court shall require verification of the 9 status of any child of the marriage with respect to such child's custody 10 and support, including any prior orders, and shall enter orders for 11 custody and support as, in the court's discretion, justice requires, 12 having regard to the circumstances of the case and of the respective 13 parties and to the best interests of the child and subject to the 14 provisions of [subdivision] SUBDIVISIONS one-c AND ONE-D of this 15 section. Where either party to an action concerning custody of or a 16 right to visitation with a child alleges in a sworn petition or 17 complaint or sworn answer, cross-petition, counterclaim or other sworn 18 responsive pleading that the other party has committed an act of domes-19 tic violence against the party making the allegation or a family or 20 household member of either party, as such family or household member is 21 defined in article eight of the family court act, and such allegations 22 are proven by a preponderance of the evidence, the court must consider 23 the effect of such domestic violence upon the best interests of the 24 child, together with such other facts and circumstances as the court
25 deems relevant in making a direction pursuant to this section and state 26 on the record how such findings, facts and circumstances factored into 27 the direction. If a parent makes a good faith allegation based on a 28 reasonable belief supported by facts that the child is the victim of 29 child abuse, child neglect, or the effects of domestic violence, and if 30 that parent acts lawfully and in good faith in response to that reason-31 able belief to protect the child or seek treatment for the child, then 32 that parent shall not be deprived of custody, visitation or contact with 33 the child, or restricted in custody, visitation or contact, based solely 34 on that belief or the reasonable actions taken based on that belief. If 35 an allegation that a child is abused is supported by a preponderance of 36 the evidence, then the court shall consider such evidence of abuse in 37 determining the visitation arrangement that is in the best interest of 38 the child, and the court shall not place a child in the custody of a 39 parent who presents a substantial risk of harm to that child, and shall 40 state on the record how such findings were factored into the determi-
41 nation. An order directing the payment of child support shall contain 42 the social security numbers of the named parties. In all cases there 43 shall be no prima facie right to the custody of the child in either 44 parent. Such direction shall make provision for child support out of the 45 property of either or both parents. The court shall make its award for 46 child support pursuant to subdivision one-b of this section. Such direc-47 tion may provide for reasonable visitation rights to the maternal and/or 48 paternal grandparents of any child of the parties. Such direction as it 49 applies to rights of visitation with a child remanded or placed in the 50 care of a person, official, agency or institution pursuant to article 51 ten of the family court act, or pursuant to an instrument approved under 52 section three hundred fifty-eight-a of the social services law, shall be 53 enforceable pursuant to part eight of article ten of the family court 54 act and sections three hundred fifty-eight-a and three hundred eighty-55 four-a of the social services law and other applicable provisions of law
56 against any person having care and custody, or temporary care and custo-

1 dy, of the child. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any writ-
2 ten application or motion to the court for the establishment, modifica-
3 tion or enforcement of a child support obligation for persons not in 4 receipt of public assistance and care must contain either a request for 5 child support enforcement services which would authorize the collection
6 of the support obligation by the immediate issuance of an income
7 execution for support enforcement as provided for by this chapter, 8 completed in the manner specified in section one hundred eleven-g of the 9 social services law; or a statement that the applicant has applied for 10 or is in receipt of such services; or a statement that the applicant 11 knows of the availability of such services, has declined them at this 12 time and where support enforcement services pursuant to section one 13 hundred eleven-g of the social services law have been declined that the 14 applicant understands that an income deduction order may be issued 15 pursuant to subdivision (c) of section fifty-two hundred forty-two of 16 the civil practice law and rules without other child support enforcement 17 services and that payment of an administrative fee may be required. The 18 court shall provide a copy of any such request for child support
19 enforcement services to the support collection unit of the appropriate 20 social services district any time it directs payments to be made to such 21 support collection unit. Additionally, the copy of any such request 22 shall be accompanied by the name, address and social security number of 23 the parties; the date and place of the parties' marriage; the name and 24 date of birth of the child or children; and the name and address of the 25 employers and income payors of the party from whom child support is 26 sought or from the party ordered to pay child support to the other
27 party. Such direction may require the payment of a sum or sums of money 28 either directly to the custodial parent or to third persons for goods or 29 services furnished for such child, or for both payments to the custodial 30 parent and to such third persons; provided, however, that unless the 31 party seeking or receiving child support has applied for or is receiving 32 such services, the court shall not direct such payments to be made to 33 the support collection unit, as established in section one hundred 34 eleven-h of the social services law. Every order directing the payment 35 of support shall require that if either parent currently, or at any time 36 in the future, has health insurance benefits available that may be 37 extended or obtained to cover the child, such parent is required to 38 exercise the option of additional coverage in favor of such child and 39 execute and deliver to such person any forms, notices, documents or 40 instruments necessary to assure timely payment of any health insurance 41 claims for such child.

42 1-D. NOTWITHSTANDING ANY OTHER PROVISION OF LAW TO THE CONTRARY, THE
44 FUTURE DEPLOYMENT OF A PARENT IN ACTIVE SERVICE OF THE ARMED FORCES OF 45 THE UNITED STATES OR OF THE ORGANIZED MILITIA OF THE STATE AS A DETRI-
46 MENTAL FACTOR TO THE AWARDING OF CUSTODY OF A CHILD TO A PETITIONING
47 PARENT WHERE A SUITABLE CHILD CARE PLAN HAS BEEN PRESENTED TO THE COURT
48 BY SUCH PARENT.

49 S 4. Section 304 of the military law, as amended by chapter 507 of the 50 laws of 1991, is amended to read as follows:

51 S 304. Proceedings to be stayed unless interest unaffected by military 52 service. At any stage thereof, any action or proceeding in any court or 53 in any adjudicatory or licensing proceeding before any state agency, 54 including any public benefit corporation or public authority, or any 55 political subdivision of the state, in which a person in military
56 service OR A MINOR DEPENDENT OF A MILITARY MEMBER is involved as a

1 party, during the period of such service or within sixty days thereafter
2 may, in the discretion of the court or adjudicatory or licensing agency
3 before which it is pending, on its own motion, and shall, on application
4 to it by such person or some person on his OR HER behalf, be stayed as 5 provided in this [act] ARTICLE, unless, in the opinion of the court or 6 adjudicatory or licensing agency, the ability of plaintiff to prosecute 7 the action, or the defendant to conduct his OR HER defense, or in any 8 adjudicatory or licensing proceeding the ability of the party to repre-
9 sent his OR HER interest, is not materially affected by reason of his OR 10 HER military service OR MILITARY SERVICE OF THE PARENT OR GUARDIAN OF 11 SUCH MINOR DEPENDENT.

12 S 5. This act shall take effect immediately.
