AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to automated teller machine fee disclosure

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEM-BLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1     Section 1. Section 399-y of the general business law, as added by 2     chapter 495 of the laws of 1999, is amended to read as follows:
3     S 399-y. Automated teller machine fee disclosure. 1. For the purposes 4     of this section, "automated teller machine operator" shall mean any 5     person who: (a) operates an automated teller machine at which consumers 6     may make financial transactions, including but not limited to deposits, 7     withdrawals, balance inquiries, and loan payments; and (b) is not the 8     financial institution which holds the account accessed by the consumer 9     to make the financial transaction.
10    2. No automated teller machine operator shall impose a fee on a 11    consumer using such machine, unless such operator: (a) provides notice
12    as required by subdivision three of this section; and (b) the consumer 13    elects to continue to effect a financial transaction after receiving 14    such notice.
15    3. [(a) The automated teller machine operator shall post a sign or 16    warning in a prominent and conspicuous location on or at the automated 17    teller machine at which the financial transaction is initiated by the 18    consumer. Such sign shall clearly state: (i) that a fee is imposed for 19    the use of such machine; and (ii) the amount of such fee.
20    (b)] The automated teller machine operator shall [also] provide notice 21    on the screen of the automated teller machine or on a paper issued from 22    such machine after the financial transaction is initiated, but before 23    the consumer is irrevocably committed to completing the transaction.
24    Such notice shall clearly state: (i) that a fee is imposed for the use

1 of such machine; (ii) the amount of such fee; and (iii) that the consum-
2 er may cancel such transaction without being assessed a fee.
3 4. (a) Any automated teller machine operator who fails to comply with 4 the requirements of this section shall be assessed a civil penalty not 5 to exceed two hundred fifty dollars per transaction.
6 (b) If the notice required pursuant to subdivision three of this 7 section has been [posted] PROVIDED by an automated teller machine opera-8 tor and such notice is subsequently removed, damaged, or altered by any 9 person other than such operator, the operator shall have no liability 10 for a failure to comply with subdivision three of this section.
11 S 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
