- S 4. Subdivision 8 of section 6811 of the education law is REPEALED.
- S 5. Sections 125.40, 125.45, 125.50, 125.55 and 125.60 of the penal law are REPEALED, and the article heading of article 125 of the penal law is amended to read as follows:

HOMICIDE[, ABORTION] AND RELATED OFFENSES

S 6. Section 125.00 of the penal law is amended to read as follows: S 125.00 Homicide defined.

Homicide means conduct which causes the death of a person [or an unborn child with which a female has been pregnant for more than twenty-four weeks] under circumstances constituting murder, manslaughter in the first degree, manslaughter in the second degree, OR criminally negligent homicide[, abortion in the first degree or self-abortion in the first degree].

S 7. Section 125.05 of the penal law, subdivision 3 as amended by chapter 127 of the laws of 1970, is amended to read as follows:
S 125.05 Homicide[, abortion] and related offenses; [definitions of terms] PERSON DEFINED.

[The following definitions are applicable to this article:

- 1. "Person,"] FOR THE PURPOSES OF THIS ARTICLE, THE TERM "PERSON," when referring to the victim of a homicide, means a human being who has been born and is alive.
- [2. "Abortional act" means an act committed upon or with respect to a female, whether by another person or by the female herself, whether she is pregnant or not, whether directly upon her body or by the administering, taking or prescription of drugs or in any other manner, with intent to cause a miscarriage of such female.
- 3. "Justifiable abortional act." An abortional act is justifiable when committed upon a female with her consent by a duly licensed physician acting (a) under a reasonable belief that such is necessary to preserve her life, or, (b) within twenty-four weeks from the commencement of her pregnancy. A pregnant female's commission of an abortional act upon herself is justifiable when she acts upon the advice of a duly licensed physician (1) that such act is necessary to preserve her life, or, (2) within twenty-four weeks from the commencement of her pregnancy. The submission by a female to an abortional act is justifiable when she believes that it is being committed by a duly licensed physician, acting under a reasonable belief that such act is necessary to preserve her life, or, within twenty-four weeks from the commencement of her pregnancy.]
- S 8. Section 125.15 of the penal law is amended to read as follows: S 125.15 Manslaughter in the second degree.
  - A person is guilty of manslaughter in the second degree when:
  - 1. He OR SHE recklessly causes the death of another person; or

S. 438

- 2. [He commits upon a female an abortional act which causes her death, unless such abortional act is justifiable pursuant to subdivision three of section 125.05; or
- 3.] He OR SHE intentionally causes or aids another person to commit suicide.

Manslaughter in the second degree is a class C felony.

- S 9. Section 125.20 of the penal law, subdivision 3 as amended and subdivision 4 as added by chapter 477 of the laws of 1990, is amended to read as follows:
- S 125.20 Manslaughter in the first degree.

A person is guilty of manslaughter in the first degree when:

- 1. With intent to cause serious physical injury to another person, he OR SHE causes the death of such person or of a third person; or
- 2. With intent to cause the death of another person, he OR SHE causes the death of such person or of a third person under circumstances which do not constitute murder because he acts under the influence of extreme emotional disturbance, as defined in paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section 125.25. The fact that homicide was committed under the influence of extreme emotional disturbance constitutes a mitigating circumstance reducing murder to manslaughter in the first degree and need not be proved in any prosecution initiated under this subdivision; or
- 3. [He commits upon a female pregnant for more than twenty-four weeks an abortional act which causes her death, unless such abortional act is justifiable pursuant to subdivision three of section 125.05; or
- 4.] Being eighteen years old or more and with intent to cause physical injury to [a] ANOTHER person less than eleven years old, [the defendant] HE OR SHE recklessly engages in conduct which creates a grave risk of serious physical injury to such person and thereby causes the death of such person.

Manslaughter in the first degree is a class B felony.

- S 10. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 8 of section 700.05 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 405 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:
