41 writing (i) the reasons that there is good cause not to require immedi-42 ate income withholding; or (ii) that an agreement providing for an 43 alternative arrangement has been reached between the parties. Such 44 agreement may include a written agreement or an oral stipulation, made 45 on the record, that results in a written order. For purposes of this 46 subdivision, good cause shall mean substantial harm to the debtor. The 47 absence of an arrearage or the mere issuance of an income deduction 48 order shall not constitute good cause. When the court determines that 49 there is good cause not to issue an income deduction order immediately 50 or when the parties agree to an alternative arrangement as provided in 51 this [paragraph] SUBDIVISION, the court shall state expressly in the 52 order of support the basis for its decision.

9 REQUIRED BY SUBSECTION (B) OF SECTION SIX HUNDRED SIXTY-SIX OF TITLE 10 FORTY-TWO OF THE UNITED STATES CODE; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT WHERE THE 11 COURT ENTERS AN ORDER FOR SPOUSAL SUPPORT ONLY, AN ALTERNATE SPOUSAL
12 SUPPORT FORM FOR INCOME WITHHOLDING PROMULGATED BY THE OFFICE OF TEMPO-13 RARY AND DISABILITY ASSISTANCE MAY BE USED BUT IS NOT REQUIRED. The 14 court shall SERVE OR CAUSE TO BE SERVED A COPY OF THE INCOME DEDUCTION

27 of the date that the debtor is paid. Each payment remitted by the 28 employer shall be made payable to the creditor named in the order, and

37 AND PRIORITY OF WITHHOLDING.

38 (F) An employer OR INCOME PAYOR shall be liable to the creditor for 39 failure to deduct the amounts specified in the income deduction order, 40 provided however that deduction by the employer OR INCOME PAYOR of the 41 amounts specified shall not relieve the debtor of the underlying obli-
42 gation of support. If an employer OR INCOME PAYOR shall fail to so pay 43 the creditor, the creditor may commence a proceeding against the employ-44 er OR INCOME PAYOR for accrued deductions, together with interest and 45 reasonable attorney's fees. If the debtor's employment is terminated by 46 resignation or dismissal at any time after service of the income 47 deduction order, the order shall cease to have force and effect unless 48 the debtor is reinstated or re-employed by the same employer. An employ-

55 the debtor for personal services, the amount withheld by the employer 56 shall not exceed the following:

(i) Where the debtor currently is supporting a spouse or dependent child other than the creditor's dependent child, the amount withheld shall not exceed fifty percent of the earnings of the debtor remaining after the deduction therefrom of any amounts required by law to be withheld ("disposable earnings"), except that if any part of the deduction is to be applied to the reduction of arrears which shall have accrued more than twelve weeks prior to the beginning of the week for which such earnings are payable, the amount withheld shall not exceed fifty-five percent of disposable earnings.

(ii) Where the debtor currently is not supporting a spouse or dependent child other than the creditor's dependent child, the amount withheld shall not exceed sixty percent of the earnings of the debtor remaining after the deduction therefrom of any amounts required by law to be withheld ("disposable earnings"), except that if any part of the deduction is to be applied to the reduction of arrears which shall have accrued more than twelve weeks prior to the beginning of the week for which such earnings are payable, the amount withheld shall not exceed sixty-five percent of disposable earnings.

[(d)] (G) An order pursuant to this section shall take priority over any other assignment, levy or process. If an employer or income payor is served with more than one income deduction order pertaining to a single employee pursuant to this section, or with an order issued pursuant to this section and also an execution pursuant to section 5241 of this [chapter] ARTICLE, and if the combined total amount of the income to be withheld exceeds the limits set forth in subdivision [(c)] (F) of this section, the employer or income payor shall withhold the maximum amount permitted thereby and pay to each creditor that proportion thereof which such creditor's claim bears to the combined total.

[(e)] (H) An employer or income payor shall be liable to the creditor for failure to deduct the amounts specified, provided however that deduction of the amounts specified by the employer or income payor shall not relieve the debtor of the underlying obligation of support.

[(f)] (I) A creditor shall not be required to issue process under section 5241 of this article prior to obtaining relief pursuant to this section.

[(g) Where the court issues an income deduction order for support enforcement payable to the support collection unit, as defined in paragraph nine of subdivision (a) of section 5241 of this article, each payment remitted by an employer or income payor shall include, in addition to the identity and social security number of the debtor, the date and amount of each withholding of the debtor's income included in the payment.]
