AN ACT to amend the real property law, in relation to excluding oil, gas or mineral land leases from leases that may be recorded by memorandum of lease

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1     Section 1. Section 291-c of the real property law, as added by chapter 2     602 of the laws of 1957, is amended to read as follows:
3     S 291-c. Recording memoranda of leases. In lieu of the recording of a 4     lease for a term exceeding three years, pursuant to section two hundred 5     ninety-one of this [chapter] ARTICLE, there may be recorded with like 6     effect a memorandum of such lease, executed by all persons who are 7     parties to the lease, and acknowledged or proved, and certified, in the 8     manner to entitle a conveyance to be recorded; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THE 9     PROVISIONS OF THIS SECTION SHALL NOT APPLY TO THE RECORDING OF OIL, GAS
10    OR MINERAL LAND LEASES. A memorandum of lease thus entitled to be 11    recorded shall contain at least the following information with respect 12    to the lease: the name of the lessor and the name of the lessee and the 13    addresses, if any, set forth in the lease as addresses of such parties; 14    a reference to the lease, with its date of execution; a description of 15    the leased premises in the form contained in the lease; the term of the 16    lease, with the date of commencement and the date of termination of such 17    term, and if there is a right of extension or renewal, the maximum peri-18    od for which or date to which the lease may be extended or the number of 19    times or date to which it may be renewed, and the date or dates on which 20    such rights of extension or renewal are exercisable.
21    Whenever a memorandum of lease is presented for recording, the lease 22    shall also be submitted to the recording officer for the purpose of 23    examination to determine whether or not such memorandum of lease is
