53 54 health law [with the following stated on the application in clear and conspicuous type:

"You must fill out the following section: Would you like to be added to the Donate Life Registry? Check box for 'yes' or 'skip this question'."

The commissioner of the department of health shall not maintain records of any person who checks "skip this question". Failure to check a box shall not impair the validity of an application, and failure to check "yes" or checking "skip this question" shall not be construed to imply a wish not to donate. In the case of an applicant under eighteen years of age, checking "yes" shall not constitute consent to make anatomical gift or registration in the donate life registry. Where an applicant has previously consented to make an anatomical gift or registered in the donate life registry, checking "skip this question" or failing to check a box shall not impair that consent or registration]. addition, the commissioner also shall require that space shall be provided on the application so that the applicant may request a notation upon such license that he or she is a veteran of the United States armed Additionally, the commissioner shall ensure that space is provided on the application so that the applicant shall indicate a declaration relating to the designation of a health care proxy pursuant section twenty-nine hundred eighty-one of the public health law and that the following is typed in clear and conspicuous type:

"You must fill out the following section: Have you completed a health care proxy? Check box for 'yes' or 'skip this question'." Followed by a space for the health care agent's name.

The commissioner shall also ensure that space is provided on the application so that the applicant shall indicate a declaration relating to the use of life-sustaining treatment and that the following is typed in clear and conspicuous type:

"You must fill out the following section: Have you completed a living will? Check box for 'yes' or 'skip this question'."

The commissioner shall make whatever provisions are feasible and desirable to maintain and issue all suitable documents regarding advanced directives at driver's license examining offices. In addition, applicant for a commercial driver's license who will operate a commercial motor vehicle in interstate commerce shall certify that such applicant meets the requirements to operate a commercial motor  $\,$  vehicle, as set forth in public law 99-570, title XII, and title 49 of the code of federal regulations, and all regulations promulgated by the United States secretary of transportation under the hazardous materials transportation act. In addition, an applicant for a commercial driver's license shall submit a medical certificate at such intervals as required the federal motor carrier safety improvement act of 1999 and Part 383.71(h) of title 49 of the code of federal regulations relating to medical certification and in a manner prescribed by the commissioner. For purposes of this section and sections five hundred three, five hundred ten-a, and five hundred ten-aa of this title, the terms "medical certificate" and "medical certification" shall mean a form substantially in compliance with the form set forth in Part 391.43(h) of title 49 of the code of federal regulations. Upon a determination that the holder of a commercial driver's license has made any false statement, with respect to the application for such license, the commissioner shall revoke such license.
