(a) The license fee shall be nine and one-half cents per barrel transferred UNLESS SUCH FACILITY IS LOCATED WITHIN A CITY HAVING A POPULATION ONE MILLION OR MORE WHEREIN SUCH FEE SHALL BE ONE CENT PER BARREL TRANSFERRED, provided, however, that the fee on any barrel, any products derived therefrom, subject to multiple transfer, shall be imposed only once at the point of first transfer. Provided further, the license fee for major facilities that (i) transfer barrels for their own (ii) do not sell or transfer the product subject to such and license fee, shall be eight cents. In each fiscal year following year in which the balance of the account established by paragraph (a) of subdivision two of section one hundred seventy-nine of this article equals or exceeds forty million dollars, no license fee shall be imposed unless (a) the current balance in such account is less than thirty-five million dollars or (b) pending claims against such account exceed fifty percent of the existing balance of such account. In the event of either such occurrence and upon certification thereof by the state comptroller, the administrator shall within ten days of the date of such certification reimpose the license fee, which shall take effect on the first day of the month following such relevy. The rate may be set at less than nine and one-half cents per barrel transferred if the administrator determines that the revenue produced by such lower rate shall be sufficient to pay outstanding claims against such account within one year of such imposition of the license fee. Should such account exceed forty
