AN ACT in relation to requiring a study and report on banking products and services offered in low income communities and the impact of traditional banks, credit unions and check casher services serving low income communities; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

- 1 Section 1. 1. The superintendent of financial services shall study and 2 issue a comprehensive report on banking products and services offered in 3 low income communities and the impact of traditional banks, credit
4 unions and check casher services serving low income communities.
5 2. Such study and report carried out pursuant to this section shall 6 address the following issues:
7 (a) which products and services are offered in low income communities
8 versus which products and services are offered in higher income communi-
9 ties;
10 (b) review of whether different fees are charged by financial service 11 providers for products and services in low income communities and in 12 higher income communities, including but not limited to, use of auto-
13 mated teller machine (ATM) fees, checking account fees, and overdraft 14 fees;
15 (c) review of whether different interest rates are instituted by 16 financial service providers for products and services in low income
17 communities and in higher income communities, including but not limited 18 to, savings account interest rates and interest rates on loans;
