1 article shall not affect the obligation of the sex offender to register 2 or verify under this article nor shall such failure prevent a court from 3 making a determination regarding the sex offender's level of notifica-4 tion and whether such offender is required by law to be registered [for 5 a period of twenty years or] for life. Where a court is unable to make a 6 determination prior to the date scheduled for a sex offender's
7 discharge, parole, release to post-release supervision or release, it 8 shall adjourn the hearing until after the offender is discharged, 9 paroled, released to post-release supervision or released, and shall 10 then expeditiously complete the hearing and issue its determination.

11 S 3. Subdivision 1 of section 168-o of the correction law, as amended 12 by chapter 1 of the laws of 2006, is amended to read as follows:

13 1. Any sex offender who is classified as a LEVEL ONE OR level two 14 risk, and who has not been designated a sexual predator, or a sexually 15 violent offender, or a predicate sex offender, who is required to regis-16 ter or verify pursuant to this article and who has been registered for a 17 minimum period of thirty years may be relieved of any further duty to 18 register upon the granting of a petition for relief by the sentencing 19 court or by the court which made the determination regarding duration of 20 registration and level of notification. The sex offender shall bear the 21 burden of proving by clear and convincing evidence that his or her risk 22 of repeat offense and threat to public safety is such that registration 23 or verification is no longer necessary. Such petition, if granted, shall 24 not relieve the petitioner of the duty to register pursuant to this 25 article upon conviction of any offense requiring registration in the 26 future. Such a petition shall not be considered more than once every two 27 years. In the event that the sex offender's petition for relief is 28 granted, the district attorney may appeal as of right from the order 29 pursuant to the provisions of articles fifty-five, fifty-six and fifty-30 seven of the civil practice law and rules. Where counsel has been 31 assigned to represent the sex offender upon the ground that the sex 32 offender is financially unable to retain counsel, that assignment shall 33 be continued throughout the pendency of the appeal, and the person may 34 appeal as a poor person pursuant to article eighteen-B of the county 35 law.

36 S 4. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to all 37 level one sex offenders registered or required to register immediately
38 prior to the effective date of this act, or who are required to register
