AN ACT to amend the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four and the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to the rent guidelines board

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision b of section 4 of section 4 of chapter 576 of 2 the laws of 1974, constituting the emergency tenant protection act of 3 nineteen seventy-four, as amended by chapter 486 of the laws of 1976, 4 the opening paragraph as amended by chapter 403 of the laws of 1983 and 5 the second and third undesignated paragraphs as amended by chapter 330
6 of the laws of 1980, is amended to read as follows:
7 b. A county rent guidelines board shall establish annually guidelines 8 for rent adjustments which, at its sole discretion may be varied and 9 different for and within the several zones and jurisdictions of the 10 board, and in determining whether rents for housing accommodations as to 11 which an emergency has been declared pursuant to this act shall be 12 adjusted, shall consider among other things (1) the economic condition 13 of the residential real estate industry in the affected area including 14 such factors as the prevailing and projected (i) real estate taxes and 15 sewer and water rates, (ii) gross operating maintenance costs (including 16 insurance rates, governmental fees, cost of fuel and labor costs), (iii)
17 costs and availability of financing (including effective rates of interest), 18 (iv) over-all supply of housing accommodations and over-all vacancy rates, 19 (2) relevant data from the current and projected cost of living indices for the 20 affected area, (3) such other data as may be made available to it. As soon as 21 practicable after its creation and thereafter not later than July first of each year, 22 a rent guidelines board shall file with the state division of housing and community ings for the preceding calendar year, and shall accompany such findings with a statement of the maximum rate or rates of rent adjustment, if any, for one or more classes of accommodation subject to this act, authorized for leases or other rental agreements commencing during the next succeeding twelve months. The maximum rate or rates of adjustment shall not exceed two percent, or one hundred twenty percent of the rate of inflation, whichever is lower. The standards for rent adjustments may be applicable for the entire county or may be varied according to such zones or jurisdictions within such county as the board finds necessary to achieve the purposes of this subdivision.

The standards for rent adjustments established annually shall be effective for leases commencing on October first of each year and during the next succeeding twelve months whether or not the board has filed its findings and statement of the maximum rate or rates of rent adjustment by July first of each year. If such lease is entered into before such filing by the board, it may provide for the rent to be adjusted by the rates then in effect, subject to change by the applicable rates of rent adjustment when filed, such change to be effective as of the date of the commencement of the lease. Said lease must provide that, if the new rates of rent adjustment differ for leases of different terms, the tenant has the option of changing the original lease term to any other term for which a rate of rent adjustment is set by the board, with the rental to be adjusted accordingly.

Where a city, town or village shall act to determine the existence of public emergency pursuant to section three of this act subsequent to the establishment of annual guidelines for rent adjustments of the accommodations subject to this act, the rent guidelines board as soon as practicable thereafter shall file its findings and rates of rent adjustment for leases or other rental agreements for the housing accommodations in such a city, town or village, which rates shall be effective for leases or other rental agreements commencing on or after the effective date of the determination.

§ 2. Subdivision b of section 26-510 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended to read as follows:

b. The rent guidelines board shall establish annually guidelines for rent adjustments, and in determining whether rents for housing accommodations subject to the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four or this law shall be adjusted shall consider, among other things (1) the economic condition of the residential real estate industry in the affected area including such factors as the prevailing and projected (i) real estate taxes and sewer and water rates, (ii) gross operating maintenance costs (including insurance rates, governmental fees, cost of fuel and labor costs), (iii) costs and availability of financing (including effective rates of interest), (iv) over-all supply of housing accommodations and over-all vacancy rates, (2) relevant data from the current and projected cost of living indices for the affected area, (3) such other data as may be made available to it. The maximum rate or rates of adjustment shall not exceed two percent, or one hundred twenty percent of the rate of inflation, whichever is lower. Not later than July first of each year, the rent guidelines board shall file with the city clerk its findings for the preceding calendar year, and shall accompany such findings with a statement of the maximum rate or rates of rent adjustment, if any, for one or more classes of accommodations subject to this law, authorized for leases or other rental agreements commencing on the next succeeding October first or within the twelve

1 months thereafter. Such findings and statement shall be published in the 2 City Record.
3 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that 4 the amendment to section 4 of the emergency tenant protection act of 5 nineteen seventy-four made by section one of this act shall expire on 6 the same date as such act expires and shall not affect the expiration of 7 such act as provided in section 17 of chapter 576 of the laws of 1974,
8 as amended; and provided further, that the amendments to section 26-510 9 of the rent stabilization law of nineteen hundred sixty-nine made by 10 section two of this act shall expire on the same date as such law
11 expires and shall not affect the expiration of such law as provided 12 under section 26-520 of such law.
