AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to prohibiting the sale of expired goods

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 2 349-f to read as follows:

3 § 349-f. Prohibitions against the sale of expired goods. 1. For the 4 purpose of this section:

5 (a) "Retail" or "retail sale" shall mean a sale to a consumer or to 6 any person for any purpose other than for resale.

7 (b) "Sell" or "offer to sell" shall mean the act of selling, display-8 ing or offering goods for retail sale.

9 (c) "Merchant" shall mean a person who deals in goods of the kind or 10 otherwise by his or her occupation holds himself or herself out as 11 having knowledge or skill particular to the practices or goods involved 12 in the transaction or to whom such knowledge or skill may be attributed 13 by his or her employment of an agent or broker or other intermediary who 14 by his or her occupation holds himself or herself out as having such 15 knowledge or skill.

16 (d) "Expiration date" shall mean the date listed on the item after 17 which the goods decline in quality, freshness, efficacy or utility.

18 2. (a) No merchant shall offer goods for retail sale after their expi-
19 ration date, unless such goods are segregated, clearly and conspicuously 20 marked, and offered at a reduction from the customary selling price at 21 which identical unexpired goods are offered for sale.

22 (b) Offering goods for sale after their expiration date shall be 23 considered a violation of the warranty of merchantability and a mate-
