Introduced by M. of A. ORTIZ, FAHY, STECK -- Multi-Sponsored by -- M. of A. SKARTADOS -- read once and referred to the Committee on Election Law

AN ACT to amend the election law, in relation to the reimbursement to counties and the city of New York of the costs associated with administering primary elections

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 6-160 of the election law is amended by adding a new subdivision 3 to read as follows:

3. The state of New York shall reimburse counties and the city of New York for costs associated with administering primary elections held in September of each even numbered election year.

(a) Reimbursement of such expenses shall be made upon application of such counties or the city of New York for state aid under this section, by filing with the state board of elections a plan, including specific costs, detailing expenses associated with conducting such primary.

(b) Included in such reimbursable costs shall be clerical costs, maintenance and operation costs, as well as salaries of local board of elections personnel, poll inspectors, ballot and sample ballot production, distribution and such other costs accrued in fulfilling the requirements of articles eight and nine of this chapter, and such other information as the state board of elections shall require.

(c) The state board of elections shall approve such reimbursement if it conforms to standards relating to the administration of elections.

(d) State aid shall be granted to the city of New York and the respective counties outside the city of New York only to the extent of reimbursing one hundred per centum of the approved expenditures incurred by the county or city in maintaining and administering the September primary election.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
