Introduced by M. of A. RYAN -- read once and referred to the Committee on Higher Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to allowing eligible non-resident undergraduate students to pay separate tuition rates for attendance at certain institutions; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph h of subdivision 2 of section 355 of the educa-
2 tion law is amended by adding a new subparagraph 4-a to read as follows:

3 (4-a) Commencing with the two thousand eighteen--two thousand nineteen 4 academic year and ending in the two thousand twenty-two--two thousand 5 twenty-three academic year, the board of trustees of the state universi-
6 ty may designate Fredonia and Alfred state universities for partici-
7 ipation in a program allowing eligible non-resident undergraduate 8 students that reside within two hundred miles of a selected institution
9 to pay separate tuition rates for attendance at those selected insti-
10 tutions. Such institutions in this program shall consider out-of-state 11 competition, current or projected levels of high school graduates within 12 an institution's recruitment region, and enrollment capacity and phys-13 ical location of these institutions, if such institution participates in 14 the program. The board of trustees of the state university is further 15 authorized to set such separate tuition rates, which shall not be set 16 below an amount equal to one and one-half times the in-state tuition 17 rate at the designated institution. Such separate tuition rates may be 18 offered only to eligible non-resident students, the total of which shall 19 not exceed ten percent of enrollment at each designated institution.
20 Each state-operated institution that is selected for participation in 21 this program shall report annually to the board of trustees of the state 22 university on the impact of this program.

23 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately; and shall expire and be 24 deemed repealed June 1, 2023.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
