Introduced by M. of A. ROSENTHAL -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to endangering the welfare of a child by exposing them to controlled substances

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The penal law is amended by adding a new section 260.35 to 2 read as follows:

3 § 260.35 Endangering the welfare of a child by exposure to controlled 4 substances.

5 A parent, legal guardian or caregiver who endangers a child's person
6 or health by knowingly causing or permitting a child less than seventeen 7 years old to be present where any person is selling, manufacturing, 8 possessing the immediate precursors or chemical substances with the 9 intent to manufacture or possess a controlled substance, as defined in 10 this chapter, is guilty of child endangerment and may be sentenced to 11 imprisonment for not more than one year or payment of a fine of not more 12 than three thousand dollars, or both such fine and imprisonment. If the 13 endangerment results in substantial harm to a child's physical, mental 14 or emotional health, the person is guilty of a felony and may be 15 sentenced to imprisonment for not more than five years or payment of a 16 fine of not more than ten thousand dollars, or both such fine and impri-17 sonment.

18 § 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 19 have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
