AN ACT to amend the executive law, the civil rights law and the education law, in relation to prohibiting discrimination based on gender identity or expression; and to amend the penal law and the criminal procedure law, in relation to including offenses regarding gender identity or expression within the list of offenses subject to treatment as hate crimes

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Legislative findings and intent. The legislature reaffirms 2 that the state has the responsibility to act to assure that every indi-3 vidual within this state is afforded an equal opportunity to enjoy a 4 full and productive life, and that the failure to provide such equal 5 opportunity, whether because of discrimination, prejudice, intolerance 6 or inadequate education, training, housing or health care not only 7 threatens the rights and proper privileges of its inhabitants, but 8 menaces the institutions and foundation of a free democratic state and 9 threatens the peace, order, health, safety and general welfare of the 10 state and its inhabitants.

11 The legislature further finds that many residents of this state have 12 encountered prejudice on account of their gender identity or expression, 13 and that this prejudice has severely limited or actually prevented

1 access to employment, housing and other basic necessities of life, lead-
2 ing to deprivation and suffering. The legislature further recognizes 3 that this prejudice has fostered a general climate of hostility and 4 distrust, leading in some instances to physical violence against those 5 perceived to live in a gender identity or expression which is different 6 from that traditionally associated with the sex assigned to that person 7 at birth.

8 In so doing, the legislature makes clear its action is not intended to 9 promote any particular attitude, course of conduct or way of life. Rath-10 er its purpose is to ensure that individuals who live in our free socie-11 ty have the capacity to make their own choices, follow their own beliefs 12 and conduct their own lives as they see fit, consistent with existing 13 law.

14 The legislature further finds that, as court decisions have properly 15 held, New York's sex discrimination laws prohibit discrimination based 16 on gender stereotypes or because an individual has transitioned or 17 intends to transition from one gender to another. This legislation is 18 intended to codify this principle and to ensure that the public under-19 stands that discrimination on the basis of gender identity and 20 expression is prohibited.

21 § 2. Subdivisions 1 and 2 of section 291 of the executive law, as 22 amended by chapter 196 of the laws of 2010, are amended to read as 23 follows:

24 1. The opportunity to obtain employment without discrimination because 25 of age, race, creed, color, national origin, sexual orientation, gender 26 identity or expression, military status, sex, marital status, or disa-27 bility, is hereby recognized as and declared to be a civil right.

28 2. The opportunity to obtain education, the use of places of public 29 accommodation and the ownership, use and occupancy of housing accommo-30 dations and commercial space without discrimination because of age, 31 race, creed, color, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity 32 or expression, military status, sex, marital status, or disability, as 33 specified in section two hundred ninety-six of this article, is hereby 34 recognized as and declared to be a civil right.

35 § 3. Section 292 of the executive law is amended by adding a new 36 subdivision 35 to read as follows:

37 35. The term "gender identity or expression" means a person's actual 38 or perceived gender-related identity, appearance, behavior, expression, 39 or other gender-related characteristic regardless of the sex assigned to 40 that person at birth, including, but not limited to, the status of being 41 transgender.

42 § 4. Subdivisions 8 and 9 of section 295 of the executive law, as 43 amended by chapter 106 of the laws of 2003, are amended to read as 44 follows:

45 8. To create such advisory councils, local, regional or state-wide, as 46 in its judgment will aid in effectuating the purposes of this article 47 and of section eleven of article one of the constitution of this state, 48 and the division may empower them to study the problems of discrimi-49 nation in all or specific fields of human relationships or in specific 50 instances of discrimination because of age, race, creed, color, national 51 origin, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, military 52 status, sex, disability or marital status and make recommendations to 53 the division for the development of policies and procedures in general 54 and in specific instances. The advisory councils also shall disseminate 55 information about the division's activities to organizations and indi-56 viduals in their localities. Such advisory councils shall be composed of 1 representative citizens, serving without pay, but with reimbursement for 2 actual and necessary traveling expenses; and the division may make 3 provision for technical and clerical assistance to such councils and for 4 the expenses of such assistance.

5 9. To develop human rights plans and policies for the state and assist 6 in their execution and to make investigations and studies appropriate to 7 effectuate this article and to issue such publications and such results 8 of investigations and research as in its judgement will tend to inform 9 persons of the rights assured and remedies provided under this article, 10 to promote good-will and minimize or eliminate discrimination because of 11 age, race, creed, color, national origin, sexual orientation, gender 12 identity or expression, military status, sex, disability or marital 13 status.

14 § 5. Paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of subdivision 1 of section 296 15 of the executive law, as amended by chapter 365 of the laws of 2015, are

8 This paragraph shall not apply to any situation where the use of a 9 surname would constitute or result in a criminal act.

10 2. Without limiting the generality of subdivision one of this section, 11 it shall be considered discriminatory if, because of an applicant's or 12 class of applicants' race, creed, color, national origin, sexual orien-13 tation, gender identity or expression, military status, age, sex, mari-14 tal status or disability, or familial status, (i) an applicant or class 15 of applicants is denied credit in circumstances where other applicants 16 of like overall credit worthiness are granted credit, or (ii) special 17 requirements or conditions, such as requiring co-obligors or reapplica-18 tion upon marriage, are imposed upon an applicant or class of applicants 19 in circumstances where similar requirements or conditions are not 20 imposed upon other applicants of like overall credit worthiness.

21 3. It shall not be considered discriminatory if credit differen-22 tiations or decisions are based upon factually supportable, objective 23 differences in applicants' overall credit worthiness, which may include 24 reference to such factors as current income, assets and prior credit 25 history of such applicants, as well as reference to any other relevant 26 factually supportable data; provided, however, that no creditor shall 27 consider, in evaluating the credit worthiness of an applicant, aggregate 28 statistics or assumptions relating to race, creed, color, national 29 origin, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, military 30 status, sex, marital status or disability, or to the likelihood of any 31 group of persons bearing or rearing children, or for that reason receiv-32 ing diminished or interrupted income in the future.

33 § 15. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 2 of section 296-b of the executive 34 law, as added by chapter 481 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as 35 follows:

36 (b) Subject a domestic worker to unwelcome harassment based on gender, 37 race, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression or 38 national origin, where such harassment has the purpose or effect of 39 unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance by creat-40 ing an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment.

41 § 16. Section 40-c of the civil rights law, as amended by chapter 2 of 42 the laws of 2002, is amended to read as follows:

43 § 40-c. Discrimination. 1. All persons within the jurisdiction of this 44 state shall be entitled to the equal protection of the laws of this 45 state or any subdivision thereof.

46 2. No person shall, because of race, creed, color, national origin, 47 sex, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, 48 or disability, as such term is defined in section two hundred ninety-two 49 of the executive law, be subjected to any discrimination in his or her 50 civil rights, or to any harassment, as defined in section 240.25 of the 51 penal law, in the exercise thereof, by any other person or by any firm, 52 corporation or institution, or by the state or any agency or subdivision 53 of the state.

54 § 17. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 313 of the education 55 law, as amended by chapter 2 of the laws of 2002, is amended to read as 56 follows:

(a) It is hereby declared to be the policy of the state that the American ideal of equality of opportunity requires that students, otherwise qualified, be admitted to educational institutions and be given access to all the educational programs and courses operated or provided by such institutions without regard to race, color, sex, religion, creed, marital status, age, sexual orientation as defined in section two hundred ninety-two of the executive law, gender identity or expression as defined in section two hundred ninety-two of the executive law, or national origin, except that, with regard to religious or denominational educational institutions, students, otherwise qualified, shall have the equal opportunity to attend therein without discrimination because of race, color, sex, marital status, age, sexual orientation as defined in section two hundred ninety-two of the executive law, gender identity or expression as defined in section two hundred ninety-two of the executive law, or national origin. It is a fundamental American right for members of various religious faiths to establish and maintain educational institutions exclusively or primarily for students of their own religious faith or to effectuate the religious principles in furtherance of which they are maintained. Nothing herein contained shall impair or abridge that right.

§ 18. Subdivision 3 of section 313 of the education law, as amended by chapter 2 of the laws of 2002, is amended to read as follows:

(3) Unfair educational practices. It shall be an unfair educational practice for an educational institution after September fifteenth, nineteen hundred forty-eight:

(a) To exclude or limit or otherwise discriminate against any person or persons seeking admission as students to such institution or to any educational program or course operated or provided by such institution because of race, religion, creed, sex, color, marital status, age, sexual orientation as defined in section two hundred ninety-two of the executive law, gender identity or expression as defined in section two hundred ninety-two of the executive law, or national origin; except that nothing in this section shall be deemed to affect, in any way, the right of a religious or denominational educational institution to select its students exclusively or primarily from members of such religion or denomination or from giving preference in such selection to such members or to make such selection of its students as is calculated by such institution to promote the religious principles for which it is established or maintained. Nothing herein contained shall impair or abridge the right of an independent institution, which establishes or maintains a policy of educating persons of one sex exclusively, to admit students of only one sex.

(b) To penalize any individual because he or she has initiated, testified, participated or assisted in any proceedings under this section.

(c) To accept any endowment or gift of money or property conditioned upon teaching the doctrine of supremacy of any particular race.

(d) With respect to any individual who withdraws from attendance to serve on active duty in the armed forces of the United States in time of war, including any individual who withdrew from attendance on or after August second, nineteen hundred ninety to serve on active duty in the armed forces of the United States in the Persian Gulf conflict: (i) to deny or limit the readmission of such individual to such institution or to any educational program or course operated or provided by such institution because of such withdrawal from attendance or because of the failure to complete any educational program or course due to such withdrawal; (ii) to impose any academic penalty on such person because of

1 such withdrawal or because of the failure to complete any educational 2 program or course due to such withdrawal; (iii) to reduce or eliminate 3 any financial aid award granted to such individual which could not be 4 used, in whole or part, because of such withdrawal or because of the 5 failure to complete any educational program or course due to such with-6 drawal; or (iv) to fail to provide a credit or refund of tuition and 7 fees paid by such individual for any semester, term or quarter not 8 completed because of such withdrawal or because of the failure to 9 complete any program or course due to such withdrawal.

10 (e) It shall not be an unfair educational practice for any educational 11 institution to use criteria other than race, religion, creed, sex, 12 color, marital status, age, sexual orientation as defined in section two 13 hundred ninety-two of the executive law, gender identity or expression 14 as defined in section two hundred ninety-two of the executive law, or 15 national origin in the admission of students to such institution or to 16 any of the educational programs and courses operated or provided by such 17 institution.

18 § 19. Section 485.00 of the penal law, as added by chapter 107 of the 19 laws of 2000, is amended to read as follows:

20 § 485.00 Legislative findings.

21 The legislature finds and determines as follows: criminal acts involv-22 ing violence, intimidation and destruction of property based upon bias 23 and prejudice have become more prevalent in New York state in recent 24 years. The intolerable truth is that in these crimes, commonly and 25 justly referred to as "hate crimes", victims are intentionally selected, 26 in whole or in part, because of their race, color, national origin, 27 ancestry, gender, gender identity or expression, religion, religious 28 practice, age, disability or sexual orientation. Hate crimes do more 29 than threaten the safety and welfare of all citizens. They inflict on 30 victims incalculable physical and emotional damage and tear at the very 31 fabric of free society. Crimes motivated by invidious hatred toward 32 particular groups not only harm individual victims but send a powerful 33 message of intolerance and discrimination to all members of the group to 34 which the victim belongs. Hate crimes can and do intimidate and disrupt 35 entire communities and vitiate the civility that is essential to healthy 36 democratic processes. In a democratic society, citizens cannot be 37 required to approve of the beliefs and practices of others, but must 38 never commit criminal acts on account of them. Current law does not 39 adequately recognize the harm to public order and individual safety that 40 hate crimes cause. Therefore, our laws must be strengthened to provide 41 clear recognition of the gravity of hate crimes and the compelling 42 importance of preventing their recurrence.

43 Accordingly, the legislature finds and declares that hate crimes 44 should be prosecuted and punished with appropriate severity.

45 § 20. Subdivisions 1, 2 and 4 of section 485.05 of the penal law, as 46 added by chapter 107 of the laws of 2000, are amended to read as 47 follows:

48 1. A person commits a hate crime when he or she commits a specified 49 offense and either:

50 (a) intentionally selects the person against whom the offense is 51 committed or intended to be committed in whole or in substantial part 52 because of a belief or perception regarding the race, color, national 53 origin, ancestry, gender, gender identity or expression, religion, reli-54 gious practice, age, disability or sexual orientation of a person, 55 regardless of whether the belief or perception is correct, or

(b) intentionally commits the act or acts constituting the offense in whole or in substantial part because of a belief or perception regarding the race, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, gender identity or expression, religion, religious practice, age, disability or sexual orientation of a person, regardless of whether the belief or perception is correct.

2. Proof of race, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, gender identity or expression, religion, religious practice, age, disability or sexual orientation of the defendant, the victim or of both the defendant and the victim does not, by itself, constitute legally sufficient evidence satisfying the people's burden under paragraph (a) or (b) of subdivision one of this section.

4. For purposes of this section:

(a) the term "age" means sixty years old or more;

(b) the term "disability" means a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits a major life activity[~~redacted~~];

(c) the term "gender identity or expression" means a person's actual or perceived gender-related identity, appearance, behavior, expression, or other gender-related characteristic regardless of the sex assigned to that person at birth, including, but not limited to, the status of being transgender.

§ 21. Subdivision 3 of section 240.30 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 188 of the laws of 2014, is amended to read as follows:

3. With the intent to harass, annoy, threaten or alarm another person, he or she strikes, shoves, kicks, or otherwise subjects another person to physical contact, or attempts or threatens to do the same because of a belief or perception regarding such person's race, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, gender identity or expression, religion, religious practice, age, disability or sexual orientation, regardless of whether the belief or perception is correct; or

§ 22. The opening paragraph of section 240.31 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 49 of the laws of 2006, is amended to read as follows:

A person is guilty of aggravated harassment in the first degree when with intent to harass, annoy, threaten or alarm another person, because of a belief or perception regarding such person's race, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, gender identity or expression, religion, religious practice, age, disability or sexual orientation, regardless of whether the belief or perception is correct, he or she:

§ 23. Section 240.00 of the penal law is amended by adding a new subdivision 7 to read as follows:

7. "Gender identity or expression" means a person's actual or perceived gender-related identity, appearance, behavior, expression, or other gender-related characteristic regardless of the sex assigned to that person at birth, including, but not limited to, the status of being transgender.

§ 24. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 7 of section 200.50 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 7 of the laws of 2007, is amended to read as follows:

(c) in the case of any hate crime, as defined in section 485.05 of the penal law, specifies, as applicable, that the defendant or defendants intentionally selected the person against whom the offense was committed or intended to be committed; or intentionally committed the act or acts constituting the offense, in whole or in substantial part because of a belief or perception regarding the race, color, national origin, ances-

1 try, gender, gender identity or expression, religion, religious prac-2 tice, age, disability or sexual orientation of a person; and 3 § 25. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall 4 have become a law; provided, however, that sections nineteen through 5 twenty-four of this act shall take effect on the first of November next 6 succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law.
