9 be posted with the clerk of the court within five business days of the

28 court may reimburse the person ordered to post security and any inter-

40 or subordinate the rights of such a secured lender having a security 41 interest in the animal or in the proceeds from the sale of such animal.

42 c. In no event shall the security prevent the impounding organization 43 having custody and care of the animal from disposing of the animal 44 pursuant to section three hundred seventy-four of this article prior to 45 the expiration of the thirty day period covered by the security if the 46 court makes a determination of the charges against the person from whom 47 the animal was seized prior thereto. Upon receipt of a petition from the 48 impounding organization, the court may order the person from whom the 49 animal was seized or the owner of the animal to post an additional secu-

51 expenses for an additional period of time pending a determination by the 52 court of the charges against the person from whom the animal was seized.

In no case shall farm animals which are the basis of the conviction be redeemed by the convicted person who is the subject of the order of forfeiture or by any person charged with an animal cruelty offense for conspiring, aiding or abetting in the unlawful act which was the basis of the conviction, or otherwise acting as an accomplice if such charge has not yet been adjudicated. The court shall reimburse the convicted person and any duly determined interested persons, pursuant to subdivision six of this section, any money earned by the sale of the farm animals less any costs including, but not limited to, veterinary and custodial care, and any fines or penalties imposed by the court. Any farm animal ordered forfeited but not sold shall be remanded to the custody and charge of an animal shelter, pound, sheriff, municipal police department, district attorney, a duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals or duly incorporated humane society or its authorized agent thereof and disposed of pursuant to subdivision five of this section.

3. The court may order that the convicted person shall not own, harbor, or have custody or control of any other animals, other than farm animals, for a period of time which the court deems reasonable. Such order must be in writing and specifically state the period of time imposed.

1 4. No dog or cat in the custody of a duly incorporated society for 2 the prevention of cruelty to animals, a duly incorporated humane society
3 or its authorized agents thereof, or a pound or shelter, shall be sold,

12 district attorney, a duly incorporated society for the prevention of 13 cruelty to animals or a duly incorporated humane society in charge of 14 animals forfeited pursuant to subdivision one or two of this section 15 may, in its discretion, lawfully and without liability, adopt them to 16 individuals other than the convicted person or person charged with an 17 animal cruelty offense for conspiring, aiding or abetting in the unlaw-18 ful act which was the basis of the conviction, or otherwise acting as an 19 accomplice if such charge has not yet been adjudicated, or humanely
20 dispose of them subject to section three hundred seventy-four of this 21 article.

22 6. (a) Prior to an order of forfeiture of farm animals, a hearing
23 shall be held within thirty days of conviction to determine the pecuni-24 ary interests of any other person in the farm animals which were the 25 basis of the conviction. Written notice shall be served at least five 26 days prior to the hearing upon all interested persons. In addition, 27 notice shall be made by publication in a local newspaper at least seven 28 days prior to the hearing. For the purposes of this subdivision, inter-29 ested persons shall mean any individual, partnership, firm, joint stock 30 company, corporation, association, trust, estate, or other legal entity
31 who the court determines may have a pecuniary interest in the farm 32 animals which are the subject of the forfeiture action.

33 (b) All interested persons shall be provided an opportunity at the 34 hearing to redeem their interest as determined by the court in the 35 subject farm animals and to purchase the interest of the convicted 36 person. The convicted person shall be entitled to be reimbursed his or 37 her interest in the farm animals, less any costs, fines or penalties 38 imposed by the court, as specified under subdivision two of this 39 section. In no case shall the court award custody or control of the 40 animals to any interested person who conspired, aided or abetted in the 41 unlawful act which was the basis of the conviction, or who knew or 42 should have known of the unlawful act.

43 7. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or restrict in 44 any way the rights of a secured party having a security interest in any
