AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to the failure to report the death or disappearance of a child

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as
2 "Caylee's law".

3 § 2. The penal law is amended by adding two new sections 260.40 and 4 260.45 to read as follows:

5 § 260.40 Failure to report the disappearance of a child.

6 A person is guilty of failure to report the disappearance of a child
7 when being the parent, guardian or other person legally charged with the 8 care or custody of a child less than eighteen years of age and he or she 9 has reason to believe such child is missing, such person fails to 10 provide notice thereof to a police officer or a law enforcement agency
11 within twenty-four hours such person has reason to believe the child is 12 missing.

13 Failure to report the disappearance of a child is a class E felony.

14 § 260.45 Failure to report the death of a child.

15 A person is guilty of failure to report the death of a child when 16 being the parent, guardian or other person legally charged with the care
17 or custody of a child less than eighteen years of age and he or she has 18 reason to believe such child is dead while not under the care of a
19 health care professional or emergency medical personnel, such person
20 fails to provide notice thereof as soon as reasonably possible, to a
21 police officer or a law enforcement agency.

22 Failure to report the death of a child is a class D felony.

23 § 3. This act shall take effect on the first of November next succeed-
24 ing the date on which it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
