AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to a license to carry or possess a firearm

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 265.00 of the penal law is amended by adding a new subdivision 10-a to read as follows:

10-a. "Filing officer" means the county clerk of each county, unless otherwise specified through resolution by the county's legislative body.

§ 2. Subdivisions 9, 10, 13 and 14 of section 400.00 of the penal law, subdivisions 9 and 10 as amended by chapter 1 of the laws of 2013 and subdivision 14 as amended by chapter 195 of the laws of 2005, are amended to read as follows:

9. License: amendment. Elsewhere than in the city of New York, a person licensed to carry or possess a pistol or revolver may apply at any time to ~~[his or her licensing]~~ the filing officer for amendment of his or her license to include one or more such weapons or to cancel weapons held under license. ~~[If granted, a]~~ A record of the amendment describing the weapons involved shall be filed by the licensing officer in the executive department, division of state police, Albany. The superintendent of state police may authorize that such amendment be completed and transmitted to the state police in electronic form. Notification of any change of residence shall be made in writing by any licensee within ten days after such change occurs, and a record of such change shall be inscribed by such licensee on the reverse side of his or her license. Elsewhere than in the city of New York, and in the counties of Nassau and Suffolk, such notification shall be made to the executive department, division of state police, Albany, and in the city of New York to the police commissioner of that city, and in the county of Nassau to the police commissioner of that county, and in the county of Suffolk to the [licensing] filing officer of that county, who shall, within ten days after such notification shall be received by him or her, give notice in writing of such change to the executive department, division of state police, at Albany.

10. License: expiration, certification and renewal. (a) Any license for gunsmith or dealer in firearms and, in the city of New York, any license to carry or possess a pistol or revolver, issued at any time pursuant to this section or prior to the first day of July, nineteen hundred sixty-three and not limited to expire on an earlier date fixed in the license, shall expire not more than three years after the date of issuance. In the counties of Nassau, Suffolk and Westchester, any license to carry or possess a pistol or revolver, issued at any time pursuant to this section or prior to the first day of July, nineteen hundred sixty-three and not limited to expire on an earlier date fixed in the license, shall expire not more than five years after the date of issuance; however, in the county of Westchester, any such license shall be certified prior to the first day of April, two thousand, in accordance with a schedule to be contained in regulations promulgated by the commissioner of the division of criminal justice services, and every such license shall be recertified every five years thereafter. For purposes of this section certification shall mean that the licensee shall provide to the licensing officer the following information only: current name, date of birth, current address, and the make, model, caliber and serial number of all firearms currently possessed. Such certification information shall be filed by the licensing officer in the same manner as an amendment. Elsewhere than in the city of New York and the counties of Nassau, Suffolk and Westchester, any license to carry or possess a pistol or revolver, issued at any time pursuant to this section or prior to the first day of July, nineteen hundred sixty-three and not previously revoked or cancelled, shall be in force and effect until revoked as herein provided. Any license not previously cancelled or revoked shall remain in full force and effect for thirty days beyond the stated expiration date on such license. Any application to renew a license that has not previously expired, been revoked or cancelled shall thereby extend the term of the license until disposition of the application by the [licensing] filing officer. In the case of a license for gunsmith or dealer in firearms, in counties having a population of less than two hundred thousand inhabitants, photographs and fingerprints shall be submitted on original applications and upon renewal thereafter only at six year intervals. Upon satisfactory proof that a currently valid original license has been despoiled, lost or otherwise removed from the possession of the licensee and upon application containing an additional photograph of the licensee, the [licensing] filing officer shall issue a duplicate license.

(b) All licensees shall be recertified to the division of state police every five years thereafter. Any license issued before the effective date of the chapter of the laws of two thousand thirteen which added this paragraph shall be recertified by the licensee on or before January thirty-first, two thousand eighteen, and not less than one year prior to such date, the state police shall send a notice to all license holders who have not recertified by such time. Such recertification shall be in a form as approved by the superintendent of state police, which shall request the license holder's name, date of birth, gender, race, residen-

1 tial address, social security number, firearms possessed by such license
2 holder, email address at the option of the license holder and an affir-3 mation that such license holder is not prohibited from possessing 4 firearms. The form may be in an electronic form if so designated by the 5 superintendent of state police. Failure to recertify shall act as a 6 revocation of such license. If the New York state police discover as a 7 result of the recertification process that a licensee failed to provide 8 a change of address, the New York state police shall not require the 9 [~~licensing~~] ~~filing~~ officer to revoke such license.

10 13. Expenses. The expense of providing a [~~licensing~~] ~~filing~~ officer 11 with blank applications, licenses and record books for carrying out the 12 provisions of this section shall be a charge against the county, and in 13 the city of New York against the city.

14 14. Fees. In the city of New York and the county of Nassau, the annual 15 license fee shall be twenty-five dollars for gunsmiths and fifty dollars
16 for dealers in firearms. In such city, the city council and in the coun-
17 ty of Nassau the Board of Supervisors shall fix the fee to be charged 18 for a license to carry or possess a pistol or revolver and provide for 19 the disposition of such fees. Elsewhere in the state, the [~~licensing~~] 20 ~~filing~~ officer shall collect and pay into the county treasury the 21 following fees: for each license to carry or possess a pistol or revol-22 ver, not less than three dollars nor more than ten dollars as may be 23 determined by the legislative body of the county; for each amendment 24 thereto, three dollars, and five dollars in the county of Suffolk; and 25 for each license issued to a gunsmith or dealer in firearms, ten 26 dollars. The fee for a duplicate license shall be five dollars. The fee 27 for processing a license transfer between counties shall be five 28 dollars. The fee for processing a license or renewal thereof for a qual-29 ified retired police officer as defined under subdivision thirty-four of 30 section 1.20 of the criminal procedure law, or a qualified retired sher-
31 iff, undersheriff, or deputy sheriff of the city of New York as defined 32 under subdivision two of section 2.10 of the criminal procedure law, or 33 a qualified retired bridge and tunnel officer, sergeant or lieutenant of 34 the triborough bridge and tunnel authority as defined under subdivision 35 twenty of section 2.10 of the criminal procedure law, or a qualified 36 retired uniformed court officer in the unified court system, or a quali-37 fied retired court clerk in the unified court system in the first and 38 second judicial departments, as defined in paragraphs a and b of subdi-39 vision twenty-one of section 2.10 of the criminal procedure law or a 40 retired correction officer as defined in subdivision twenty-five of 41 section 2.10 of the criminal procedure law shall be waived in all coun-42 ties throughout the state.

43 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
